MEDITATION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

[Jesus told a story about a father who said to his son,] 'Go and work in the vineyard today.' I don't want to, 'he answered, but later he changed his mind and went.' Matthew 21:28-29

A man turned to drink. He also turned from God and his family. One day while walking along, repenting how his life turned out, he saw a bent, rusty nail in the gutter. It reminded him of himself and his life. So he picked it up and took it home. Placing the nail on an anvil, he began to straighten it out and clean it up. An hour later, it looked almost new again. Then it occurred to him. He could straighten out and clean up his own life in the same way. That thought triggered his conversion. He turned away from drink and back to God and to his family. Today, he keeps that nail, straightened and cleaned, in his wallet. Was there a time when I was almost like that bent, rusty nail? What changed me?

VOLUNTEERING IS THE ULTIMATE EXERCISE IN DEMOCRACY.

YOU VOTE IN ELECTIONS ONCE A YEAR,

BUT WHEN YOU VOLUNTEER, YOU VOTE EVERY DAY ABOUT THE KIND OF COMMUNITY YOU WANT TO LIVE IN.

Marjorie Moore

Dear parishioners,

We are profoundly blessed at Immaculate Heart of Mary. Those blessings have been given to us by God and we pray to use them well in service to Him and our neighbors. Our recently completed Capital Campaign: Many Gifts ~ One Heart is a tremendous success because of your generosity. More important than all the money raised, were the prayers offered and the level of engagement within our parish. I am thankful as your pastor for our office staff, volunteers and participants who worked together to make it so successful.

As we approach stewardship this year we want to be mindful of the constant call to serve. We should never forget that it all depends on prayer and flows from prayer. May that prayer enlighten your discernment as you reflect on how the Holy Spirit may be inviting you to become more active. Coming to Mass is our one essential hour each week. Our life of discipleship is built upon this hour of praise and worship. Our sense of community as we worship grows in proportion to what takes place outside of Mass.

This year I would like to extend an invitation to all of our parishioners to become more involved in the life of the parish. As with prayer and personal formation, I am not asking you to consider doing more in an already packed schedule, but choosing to spend your time differently. Working beside your fellow parishioners opens the door for growing friendships and a sense of personal fulfillment. Many of your fellow parishioners who are involved in the parish know this to be true. I have never regretted spending time with people I have grown to love, and because of my faith that circle of love is ever expanding.

Peace,

Fr. Tom

I – Informed, about our faith and the world we are called to evangelize

Every family should have received their user name and passwords for the online portion of the Faith and Life text from MyCatholicFaithDelivered.com. If you haven't received this email, or one from the office, please contact Shawn at 636-398-5270. You should also be getting a weekly email from "Constant Contact" as a way of keeping in touch on a weekly basis.

What is Symbolon?

Fr. Tom recently gave an "info- homily" of various options to consider to grow in love and knowledge of the Lord and the faith we profess as Catholics. The central resource that was highlighted in his homily is a video based program called Symbolon. IHM has purchased a subscription for every member of the parish. All one has to do is to go online to www.symboloncatholic.org/register and register by entering the parish access code....and you are on your way. You will have access to 20 high quality, faithful, beautifully crafted videos which systematically explain the faith. You will also have access to leader or participant guides that help individuals apply their learning.

The parish access code is 04c2dc

While one can participate individually in the program "on their own", an ideal would be to do the program with others, whether that is a spouse, with one's family..... or better, with others in a group or parish setting. If you are interested in joining others in a group setting, consider inviting neighbors or family members over and watch it at home. If your computer screen is not large enough to be viewed with others using the online format and you would like to watch it on your television, we do have DVD copies available here in the office that you can use. Simply contact Shawn in the office.

There has been two times thus far for a potential "group setting" here at the parish, Thursday evenings at 6:30 pm and Friday mornings after Mass. Each session can go for an hour to an hour and a half. If these times would work for you or if you would like to let others know that you either are forming a group at a different time or place or would like to be a part of a group at a different time or place, let us know.

A Thursday evening group will be starting Thursday, October 2nd in Weber Hall from 6:30 – 8:00 PM. Any RCIA candidates or folks interested in inquiring into the faith are welcome to join us. Please let us know. For questions about any of this, contact Shawn in the parish office for more information (636-398-5270 or smueller@ihm-newmelle.org)

Understanding the Scriptures

A Complete Course on Bible Study

"Understanding the Scriptures"
A Complete Course on Bible Study has been written by Dr. Scott Hahn.

Groups are now forming for both morning and evening sessions to systematically read through and discuss the contents of this 500 + page book. ANSWERS TO "WHAT'S YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?"

1. (a) Moses and Elijah, the two towering figures representing the Law and the Prophets, appeared in the Transfiguration scene given in Matthew 17:3.
2. (c) Patrick (c. 385-461), himself kidnapped and sold into slavery as a young boy, knew from experience what it was like to be treated as the property of another human being.
3. (d) It took great courage for Joseph of Arimathea to come forward and offer his own tomb for the burial of Jesus, who had been executed as a common criminal (Matthew 27:57; Mark 15:42-43; Luke 23:50-51; John 19:38).
4. (a) Footwashing is a sign of servant leadership in the Church, modeled on Jesus' actions in John 13:1-15.
5. (b) Pope watchers and reporters like to guess about who might be elected the next pope, but, as history has shown, only the Holy Spirit knows.
6. (c) The laying on of hands dates from both ancient Israel and the early Church. See Acts 13:3, where Paul and Barnabas are sent forth.
7. (b) Bishops are expected to retire around the age of 75 (Canon n. 401).
8. (a) As part of the institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper, Jesus says, "Do this in remembrance of me" (Luke 22:19; 1 Corinthians 11: 24).
9. (b) St. Joseph, the spouse of Mary, is the patron of the universal Church, of carpenters and workers, and of a happy death. His feast day is March 19.
10. (a) Shouts of "Hosanna!" (Matthew 21:9; Mark 11:9; John 12:13) greeted Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. "Hosanna" means "Save us, we pray!" The Gospel reading during the procession with palms on Palm Sunday is about Jesus' entry into Jerusalem.

FROM THE RESPECT LIFE APOSTOLATE TEAM

What a wonderful week for the Culture of Life!! After an arduous day, on Wednesday, the Missouri House and Senate overrode Gov. Nixon's vetoes of the 72 hour reflection period before an abortion and the tax credits for pregnancy resource centers, maternity homes, and food pantries. It's amazing to think of the number of lives that will have been saved as a result of these two new laws. Thank you to all who prayed for the success of these pro-life bills, contacted their legislators, and attended the Rally in Jefferson City!

God bless,

I'm Not Being Fed: Jeff Cavins Jeff Cavins explores and responds to some of the reasons why so many people have left the Catholic Church for evangelical Christianity. As he presents the story of his return to Catholicism, Cavins also builds a case for why the Catholic Church is the Church founded by Christ. I have listened to this particular talk three times now and it is so incredible. I cannot even imagine who could listen to this and not want to be Catholic!!! It was presented well, and I am making a list of who I can give it to. Thanks so much Jeff!! Teri - Wheatland, MO

From the Parish Library: Grand Hall

December 1531, Mexico. The Virgin Mary appears to Juan Diego, a humble Indian peasant, but at first, no one believes him. On her request the Indian peasant wraps some Castilian roses in his tilma, which had mysteriously bloomed on the barren rock at his feet. He is given an audience with his Bishop to tell his amazing story, and when he meets the Bishop he opens his cloak to a miraculous scene: the image of the Virgin is impressed upon it. The image is extraordinarily real. Centuries later, the results of scientific analysis are amazing. In the Virgin's eyes the 13 figures who witnessed the miracle are visible. The stars on her cloak are positioned exactly as they were on the day of miracle (December 12, 1531). The painting technique used is unknown. The colors are vibrant and intact; the cloth itself, uncorrupted by time. And that's not all: an extraordinary discovery reveals the Spanish origin (from Extremadura, Spain) of the name of Guadalupe and its incredible connection with the Evangelist Saint Lucas.
