Believe It or Not

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus say three times, "Peace be with you." While this was a common greeting, Jesus was using it to remind them of his saying, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid" (John 14:27). The disciples were hiding in fear, so they needed reassurance. Jesus gives them that reassurance in three ways: his resurrection, forgiveness of sins, and a blessing for future disciples.

Now that he is raised from the dead, they can take heart that no one can truly hurt them—even death has been overcome. The disciples had seen Jesus crucified and were afraid any of his followers would be treated the same way. So when Jesus appeared to them, he showed them his wounds and let them touch him. He wanted to show that he was not a ghost (a spirit or vision of someone who is still dead). He has risen from death and it has no more power over him. They can now take courage because they will share in the Resurrection themselves. Breathing on them, he bestows the Holy Spirit, source of our courage.

That leads to the second reassurance, forgiveness of sins. Jesus died to take away our sins; now he shares that with his disciples when he tells them that they can forgive sins also (John 20:23). Anyone troubled by guilt can be forgiven. The disciples themselves probably felt that need, since they had deserted Jesus and one even denied knowing him. As Jesus was sent by his Father, he now sends his apostles with the mission to free others from sin. We too can forgive others (and ourselves) knowing that God has forgiven them and us.

Finally, the story of Thomas and his doubts about Jesus' resurrection gives us some hope. Jesus blesses those who "have not seen and have believed" (John 20:29). That includes everyone down to the present generation who has believed on the word of others—from the apostles in the scriptures to holy people in our own time who have experienced the Lord in their lives. We often think the apostles were "more" blessed for having seen and heard Jesus. But Jesus reverses that expectation; we are blessed, even two thousand years after the Resurrection.

SECOND SUNDAY OF Easter (OR SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY) APRIL 28, 2019

Dear Parishioners:

As you read this we are either preparing for or well under way into our Spring Sausage Dinner! We hope for good weather, generous patrons and hard-working volunteers!

Events like our Sausage Dinners are a lot of work and can be tiring, but it is the best kind of tired that we can experience. We give ourselves in service to our community, working alongside people who share our faith and love of the Lord. As His disciples, we tire ourselves out in service to Him and our neighbors. I can't think of a better way to feel exhausted and yet content at the same time.

My thanks to all the members of our Dinner Committee and all of our volunteers who help make our dinners so successful. May God continue to bless all that we do at IHM. To all our volunteers who have been at it for years, I appreciate your steadfast dedication to the parish. To all of our new volunteers, I appreciate your willingness to join in the life of our community. To all those who are no longer able to work, but love IHM, I appreciate your prayers and support.

Peace

Fr. Tom

2nd Sunday of Easter—Divine Mercy Sunday

[The apostle Thomas was absent when Jesus appeared to the disciples; and he refused to believe, saying,] "Unless I see the scars of the nails, and put my finger in those scars. I will not believe." [Later Jesus dealt tenderly with Thomas and he believed.] JOHN 20:25

The Basilica of the Holy Cross in Jerusalem was consecrated around 325 to house the Passion Relics brought to Rome from the Holy Land by St. Helena of Constantinople, mother of the Roman Emperor Constantine.

Several well-known relics of disputed authenticity are housed here including a part of the panel which was hung on Christ's Cross; two thorns of the crown; an incomplete nail; and three small wooden pieces of the True Cross itself. Other relics enshrined in the Chapel include: (relevant to the Scripture readings today) The bone of an index finger, said to be the finger of St. Thomas that he placed in the wounds of the Risen Christ

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (JOHN 20:21)

Peace—the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be grateful and generous. Look for opportunities to share His peace, not only within our local parish boundaries, but outside of them as well. In giving, we receive the peace of Jesus Christ.

We pray ... that we look for opportunities to share God's peace inside and outside of our parish boundaries.

In the Traditional- Devotional Dedication of the Months of the Year, the month of April is dedicated both to devotion to the Eucharist and devotion to the Holy Spirit. This tradition has developed because Easter Sunday often falls in April. In essence, April is a month of Easter, and during the Easter celebration we remember the Eucharistic sacrifice Christ gave us and the baptism in the Holy Spirit, which would come after Jesus's resurrection. Question: What is the significance of Jesus "breathing" on the Apostles to communicate the Spirit? Hint: See Genesis 2:7

Pope John Paul II said that Divine Mercy is THE message for the third millennium and God's gift to our time. There is nothing that mankind needs more than Christ's Divine Mercy. To help us avail ourselves of that loving mercy, Fr. Brooks focuses on what we know of God's Mercy, our response to His Love, how we can become merciful to others, and how to become apostles of mercy.

Bonus: At the end of this presentation, the Divine Mercy chaplet is led by Fr. Francis Peffley, Mark Forrest - an Irish tenor, and Muriel Forrest.

Wow! A much needed message full of hope and encouragement for all souls cut off from God through sin. A promise of mercy from our Savior. Jesus, I Trust in You!!

Consuelo - Wichita, KS

Fr. Brooks speaks with enthusiasm and wisdom; he loves sharing God's message as much as I enjoyed listening. Thank you for this work.

Joe - Dickinson, ND

The Revelation of Divine Mercy

Cardinal Raymond L. Burke

(Excerpts from the St. Louis Review written during his time as Archbishop of St. Louis)

Full article at http://www.piercedhearts.org/hearts_jesus_mary/christology/revelation_divine_mercy.htm

Public Revelation and Private Revelation

In the last century, our Lord Jesus granted a private revelation to a Polish religious sister, Sister Maria Faustina Kowalska of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy. The purpose of the private revelation was to draw us to the fullness of the public revelation of the Father's immeasurable love of us in His Incarnate Son. As with all private revelations, the private revelation to Sister Maria Faustina draws us to recognize the public revelation of God's love in the Redemptive Incarnation of God the Son. In the particular case of Sister Maria Faustina, the private revelation is centered upon the mercy of God. Sister Maria Faustina kept a meticulous record or diary of all that our Lord taught her about His immeasurable mercy toward us. It is entitled Diary: Divine Mercy in My Soul...

Divine Mercy Chaplet and Divine Mercy Sunday

Through Sister Maria Faustina, our Lord asked that each day we recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3pm, the hour of His death, for our salvation. He also asked that we celebrate the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, [even] preceding the celebration with a novena to Divine Mercy, beginning on Good Friday.... The one who most promoted the devotion to the Divine Mercy was our late and most beloved Pope John Paul II... Pope John Paul II beatified Sister Maria Faustina on April 18, 1993, and he canonized her a saint on April 30, 2000, the Second Sunday of Easter. During the homily of the Mass, he declared: "It is important that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the Word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church will be called Divine Mercy Sunday." Since April 30, 2000, the Second Sunday of Easter also bears the name of Divine Mercy Sunday.

On Divine Mercy Sunday, the image of the Divine Mercy, revealed to Saint Faustina, is to be displayed in the church or chapel, and the homily is to be a reflection on the immeasurable mercy of God toward us. In order to participate fully in the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday, the faithful are asked to go to Confession * and receive Holy Communion, and to cultivate interiorly a great trust in the mercy of God and to practice exteriorly acts of mercy, especially on behalf of brothers and sisters in most need...

Conclusion

Regarding Divine Mercy Sunday, Saint Faustina records these words of our Lord to her: My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of my mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity.... The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy (Diary, n. 699).

Let us all draw near to the Fount of Divine Mercy in the Sacraments of Confession and, above all, the Holy Eucharist. Let us pray, in the coming days and especially during the Novena of Divine Mercy that all souls which have drifted away from our Lord will receive the grace of forgiveness and reconciliation with God and neighbor. May you have a most blessed celebration of the Sacred Triduum. May the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday fill you with the peace which comes from the forgiveness of our sins and the joy which comes from the Holy Spirit dwelling within us.

 Confession during the Lenten season, that is, a reasonable time before the Feast is sufficient. This highlights the fact that one must be in the state of grace to receive the extraordinary grace promised by Our Lord.*
