Give Them Some Food Yourselves

The Gospel for this feast reminds me of what my aunt used to tell us when we would visit her and share a meal. She always fixed more than enough for everyone (even with her three kids and my parents' eight kids); her favorite saying was, "If you don't get enough to eat, it's your own fault." Perhaps Jesus would say the same as he feeds us with his Body and Blood.

Some say that the multiplication of loaves was not done by breaking the laws of physics. Instead, they say that Jesus, when he began to share the little bread that he had, touched the hearts of all those who had brought food with them. They followed his example by sharing their food also—so much that there were twelve baskets left over.

While I don't doubt that Jesus could have multiplied the loaves he had, it reminds me of the temptation in the desert, when the devil told him to make bread out of rocks. If he rejected that temptation, why would he do almost the same thing now?

No, Jesus came to change people's hearts, to show them God's love and how to love one another. The miracle of the loaves shows us that Jesus can feed millions with his Body and Blood in the Eucharist. The miracle of changing bread and wine into his Body and Blood is not just so we can feel good about having Jesus so near to us. It is meant to strengthen us to do our best as his disciples. As food and drink help us to keep on working, his Body and Blood help us to keep on loving. Look around as the Communion procession goes by and think about how many are united with Jesus. Let the broken bread and poured-out wine remind you of how Jesus gave himself up to death on the cross.

When the disciples told Jesus about the hungry crowd, he told them, "Give them some food yourselves" (Luke 9:13). And one day they would. When they celebrated the Eucharist after Jesus' resurrection, they gave that spiritual food to the new followers of Christ. We continue that today. With Jesus' strength we can teach all people about the Father's love for them and how they can love each other.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, June 23, 2019

Dear Parishioners,

As we celebrate the Solemn Feast of Corpus Christi, I recall the words of St. Augustine to the faithful of Hippo: "Become what you have received." That simple phrase is such an immense invitation and challenge to all of us. You and I have been invited not only to praise the Living God, to offer our worship, service and sacrifice but also to receive Him in the mystery of The Sacrament. Hard to believe we are privileged to touch the Savior of the Universe, to consume the Eternal Word of God, to experience communion with Jesus Christ.

Many don't believe in the mystery of the Eucharist. A failure to grasp what is unique about our worship makes it just another expression of faith. While God can be encountered in many aspects and experiences in life, none of them compare to what we believe about the mystery of the Eucharist. Perhaps they have never attempted to understand the mystery, or perhaps they have an incomplete or unexplored faith. It does take some effort to grow in anything, and faith takes more effort than other self-evident endeavors. To sustain a relationship with persons with whom you cannot relate on a sensory level is the most challenging of relationships. We have to constantly cultivate a religious awareness that is something akin to imagination except that we are seeking the ultimate Reality. We are brushing up against things too great for our limited grasp, but we have been invited to ask, seek and knock. Even more amazing is that we believe that God has given us the Church to help us in this lifelong adventure.

"Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed." Those are the most honest words I speak every day. I hope they are for you as well. We are not worthy, not now, not ever. But praise be to God for His grace and mercy that gives us the freedom to approach Him with confidence and courage. Even more startling are the words of St. Augustine — to become like the One we receive. "Amen" is just the beginning of our response to Jesus. Imitating His life is the goal set for all of us who are sincere about discipleship.

We are not perfect and we never proclaim our perfection, but we do proclaim One who is perfect and calls us to discipleship. We want to invite others to know the Living and Loving Lord, to begin the amazing adventure of faith and conversion. We know we will sin, fail and falter along the way. But God has given us His Son and the Church to forgive our sins, to lift us up from our failings and to steady us along the way. "Behold the Lamb of God, Behold Him who takes away the sins of the world, blessed are those called to the Supper of the Lamb." Those words always make me pause in awe and wonder.

We are so blessed.

Peace

F. Tom

Quote from Dr. Peter Kreeft, coming to IHM in November

Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ: Year C

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" MARK 14:12

On the night of the Last Supper, as in the embrace following a wedding feast, Jesus gave His Bride, the Church, Himself—"This is My Body." Fulfilling all the "types" of the Old Testament, particularly the Passover meal, our Lord united Himself to us by way of a Communion meal, leading us out of the slavery from sin. Think of these "types" of the Eucharist in the Old Testament and how Jesus has fulfilled them. The tree of life. The offering of Abel. The offering of Isaac. The offering of Melchizedek. The offering of the Firstborn / Passover Lamb. The Manna in the Desert.

We thank the Lord for the many years of Eucharistic Adoration around the clock Monday through Friday, here at IHM.

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when we share what we have, even if it doesn't seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! God blesses all the gifts we offer and makes them wondrous.

We pray ... that we recognize no gift is too small or insignificant and look for the miracles that occur daily.

Dear Friends,

Your reception for me after Mass on the 9th was just lovely. Thank you, parish staff and welcoming committee, for all the planning and time spent putting it together. I appreciate all the love and good wishes from my friends at IHM, though saying "good-bye" is never an easy thing. I plan to continue to be as involved as possible in the usual IHM events and will see many of you there. God bless you all and my favorite little town, too. New Melle may not be my physical home, but it has certainly been my emotional and spiritual home for many years now. I'll keep you in my prayers, and plan to see you here and there.

Love always,

It also mentions "an Official Travel Agency of Apostleship of the Sea-USA" and CST 2117990-70. Below this is an image of a man and a woman smiling, looking at a laptop screen which displays a webpage. To the right of the image, the text reads "Get this weekly bulletin delivered by email - for FREE!" followed by "Sign up here:" and a link https://www.jspaluch.com/BulletinSubscribe.aspx. At the bottom, it says "Courtesy of J.S. Paluch Company, Inc." with a blue square logo containing a white letter P.
