Arm the Photon Torpedoes

Usually the first reading is picked to go with the Gospel. This week the connection appears to be a feast. The book of Joshua tells of the Israelites coming into the Promised Land, where they no longer needed to be fed with manna as in the desert. They had been wandering much longer than expected because of their unfaithfulness. But now they are forgiven, and so celebrate the Passover with food from the land. Then we hear the Gospel parable about another feast. This one is also a celebration of forgiveness, for the prodigal son has returned to his father, and the father's forgiveness shows us how willing God is to forgive us. That's where we end the parable, right?

Wrong. The parable continues with the older son's complaint about a feast for his brother. Did you notice the words of the father that "everything I have is yours" (Luke 15:31)? He's not just being sentimental because they are family. The younger brother had already taken his inheritance, so whatever was left will one day go to the older one. That son cannot forgive his brother and is angry at the father for welcoming the prodigal back. This is where we come in.

Most of us have no trouble asking God's forgiveness. But we may have trouble forgiving others. We are so used to thinking in terms of justice that we are not satisfied with forgiveness. When I have been hurt, I feel like hitting back.

When you see an action movie, you don't want the bad guy to give up and say he's sorry—you expect him to be destroyed by the good guy, hopefully in a big fight or a spectacular explosion. (Superheroes, however, almost never kill the bad guy.)

So we have to ask ourselves whose idea of justice we live by. Is it the human expectation of an eye for an eye? Or is it God's justice, which is mercy and forgiveness? When someone cuts you off in traffic, do you feel like firing the photon torpedoes, or offering forgiveness? The Golden Rule could be "Forgive others as you would be forgiven." Jesus gave his life for the sins of the world. Do we have the right to ask for more?

Fourth Sunday of LENT

March 31, 2019

Prayers for the Lenten Season

Dear Parishioners,

I came across this prayer a while ago and thought it worthy of sharing with you. All of us know many people who are in need of our intercession. Our prayer list at IHM is rather extensive. One note on this prayer: God is aware of all diseases as the prayer states and the admission of His bidding is not the same as saying that God wills us to suffer or experience some trial or disorder. Occasions of illness and other trials should be seen as invitations to trust God and affirm our belief in His loving goodness rather than seen as some petty or arbitrary act out of Greek mythology. Another note, the language of the prayer is rather old-style but I think that adds to its appeal to me. Sometimes the starkness of older styles and verses serve as a wake up call for seeing things more clearly.

A Prayer for Healing a Loved One

All our times are in Thy hand. All diseases come at Thy call, and go at Thy bidding.
Thou redeemest our life from destruction, and crownest us with loving kindness and tender mercies.

We bless Thee, that Thou hast heard our prayer, and commanded deliverances for our friend and Thy servant, who has been under Thine afflicting hand.

He (or she) was brought low, but Thou hast helped him (her).

May he (she) not only live, but declare the works of the Lord!

As Thou hast delivered his eyes from tears, his feet from falling, and his soul from death, may he daily inquire: What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits towards me, and resolve to offer unto Thee the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and to call upon the name of the Lord.

May we ever remember that recovery is only a reprieve and that some day we will go to our rest in the Lord.

May we therefore secure the righteous path and live with eternity ever in our view.

Peace,

Fr. Tom

LENTEN CONFESSIONS: MONDAY-TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY, 7:00—8:30 PM

4th Sunday of Lent

[One day Jesus healed a blind youth. When the Pharisees asked the parents of the youth who healed him, they said,] "Ask him; he is old enough, and he can answer for himself!" His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish authorities, who had already agreed that anyone who said he believed that Jesus was the Messiah would be expelled from the synagogue. JOHN 9:21-22

There's an old story about a boy who asked his father, "Dad, is it really true that when you were a boy, you went to church every Sunday?" His dad replied proudly, "Yes, son, I went every Sunday!" The boy thought a minute and said, "I'll bet my going every Sunday won't do me any good either!" What are my thoughts as I imagine seeing some things I do through my child's eyes?

Children often follow the footprints their parents thought they covered up. ANONYMOUS

Lenten Prayer Requests

During the season of Lent we would like to emphasize this season of prayer and healing by inviting you to add your personal prayers to those of our entire community. Please look for a container on the table in the narthex where you can place your prayer requests. This Lent we ask everyone in our community to pray for all of them. Lent is a special time of the year for us as a community to pray for each other and to prepare ourselves for the Glorious Resurrection. At the Easter Vigil, we will burn all of your requests in the Easter fire, raising up your intentions to heaven, realizing that our Lord knows

"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan." (JOSHUA 5:12)

We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have or do you generously share with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you? Remember, not only are we called to be generous, we are called to develop and nurture our gifts and return with increase.

We pray ... that we trust that God will provide all that we need.

Needed at the Pantry:

razors, shaving cream, deodorant (men & women),
hair conditioner, crackers, brownie mix, juice, plastic bags

In today's Gospel the prodigal son repents and finds mercy in the heart of his father. Know that your penance during Lent can give the poor the grace of finding the merciful heart of God the Father.

In the month of March, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist many families in providing food and funds for utility and rent bills, etc. Thank you!

Deacon Diaper Drive

During the weekends of March 30/31 through Palm Sunday, April 14th, the Permanent Deacons in the Archdiocese of St. Louis, in conjunction with the Respect Life office, will be collecting diapers for infants, toddlers and adults as part of our fourth annual diocesan-wide Pro-Life service project to assist families in need. All diapers collected will be donated to assist families in our parish community through St. Vincent de Paul. For more information, speak to our permanent deacons or give the office a call. Please place the packages in Weber Hall on the tables provided. We ask you to pray for the success of this project and to please be as generous as possible.

PSR Corner

In the Traditional-Devotional Dedication of the Months of the Year, March is traditionally dedicated to St. Joseph. The best way to get to know more about St. Joseph is prayerful reflection on his namesake in the Old Testament, Joseph the Patriarch. Typology helps us to discern how persons, places and things in the OT were fulfilled in the NT. And if Joseph of Old (a young, chaste, chosen, godly, beloved son of a father named Jacob and a “dreamer” who was mistreated by his brethren, left for dead, who went to Egypt and eventually saved his family) is something, just imagine the role of Joseph in the New. Read the Genesis story with new eyes and then invoke the principle mentioned about him, “Go to Joseph” (Gen 41:55)

Helping Hearts Community Service Ministry

We are a group of IHM volunteers who wish to provide physical assistance to our neighbors who are unable to help themselves because of physical limitations. We can help with:

- ♥ Transportation to/from medical appointments, grocery stores and churches
- ♥ Install support bars for showers and tubs
- ♥ Install ramps for people having trouble with mobility
- ♥ Simple tasks: replacing lightbulbs and other simple household jobs
- ♥ Remove obstacles or debris: fallen tree limbs, etc.

Please pick up a brochure from our IHMformation Station for phone contacts and further information about what we can (and cannot) do. We want to help our parishioners and other community members within our parish boundaries in need of minor services that they are unable to do because of age or infirmity.

Road Trip to the Chrism Mass

On Holy Thursday morning the Archbishop, joined by the priests of the Archdiocese, gather at the Cathedral to celebrate the Chrism Mass. This Mass manifests the unity of the priests with their bishop. Here the Archbishop blesses three oils — the oil of catechumens, the oil of the infirm and holy chrism — which will be used in the administration of the sacraments throughout the Archdiocese for the year. As our Archbishop blesses these three oils at the Chrism Mass this year, our hearts turn to our gracious Lord who bestows His infinite love and mercy to us through these sacraments. Let us also pray for our bishops and the priests who are the ministers of the sacraments in the parish, that they may be the humble and generous servants of the Lord.

Holy Thursday Morning, April 18 at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis
Mass begins at 10:00am and will conclude about 11:30am
We will leave from IHM at roughly 7:30 to find a good parking spot (Mass is crowded!)

If you would like to join us, please call Peggy at the church office (636-398-5270) so we will know how many will be going, and who would be willing to drive.
 For some of us who have never gone, we've heard it's a quite beautiful Mass. Come with us!

MORE BENEFITS OF GOING TO CONFESSION

1. Confession helps us become more saintly, more like Jesus.

Jesus was perfectly humble, perfectly generous, perfectly patient, perfectly loving—perfectly everything! Don't you wish you could be as humble, generous, patient, and loving as Jesus? Saints throughout history have felt that way too, and they have frequented the Sacrament of Reconciliation to help transform them into people who are more like Christ. Little images of Christ—that's what saints are!

2. Confession makes our will stronger.

Every time we experience the Sacrament of Confession, God strengthens our will and our self-control to be able to resist the temptations that confront us in our lives. We become more resolute to follow God's will and not our own whims.

Of course, the list of benefits of the Sacrament of Confession goes on and on! What's keeping you from Reconciliation?

The words of absolution in the Confessional are truly beautiful: "I absolve you from your sins, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." Jesus is waiting to forgive you—all you have to do is ask! Don't miss out any longer on the healing power of Confession.

Prayer for an End to Infanticide

Jesus, Lord of Life, transform the hearts of all elected leaders to recognize that infanticide is wrong and must not be tolerated. Open hearts and minds to recognize and defend the precious gift of every human life.

Lighthouse Catholic CD Rack: Narthex

In this presentation, Matthew Leonard focuses on the new idea of love proclaimed by Christ and how it gives meaning to human suffering, penance, and ultimately death. Sounds a bit dark, doesn't it? But it's not! By looking at these issues we'll discover the secret to how we can "Rejoice in the Lord always" just like St. Paul, no matter what happens.

Finally! Someone has explained Redemptive Suffering in a way that is easily understandable.
YES!

Norm-Biloxi, MS

This talk explains the connection between suffering and love in a clear way, using both Scripture and personal stories.
