This is a Test

As we are now well into Lent, we can take a look at what it means to turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel. A good place to start would be the Ten Commandments. The reading from Exodus presents us with one of the first listings of the Commandments. In this passage, God explains some of the laws to show how serious they are. For the first one, God includes making images to be used for worship. Now you might jump to the conclusion that all the statues and crucifixes in our churches must be destroyed. Not so.

In the days of Moses, people of other cultures made images of their gods and declared that the image was the god, and so should be worshipped. The LORD wanted his people to remember that God cannot be limited to an image or idea. That is still true today. Our images and statues are meant to help us pray to God, not to that work of art. In that sense, they are no worse than using a beautiful sunset or mountain scene to help you pray.

On the other hand, some people give a superstitious meaning to religious articles. Burying a statue to help sell your house could be one example. If you want to ask for a favor from God, just ask Him. God is much more likely to listen to a sincere prayer than a superstitious action.

The reason God gives for the first commandment is that he is a passionate God, who has chosen the Israelites to be his people. When he punishes sin, he allows the effect of our bad choices to hurt us and those around us. But when we repent and change our ways, his love is everlasting.

God also emphasizes some commands by duplicating them. He tells us not to steal from others, and also not to plan to steal from our neighbor. The same with adultery: Planning it is just as bad as doing it. Taking his name in vain originally meant perjuring yourself after taking an oath to tell the truth. That is similar to the eighth commandment about false witness.

Jesus simplified all these commands when he reminds us to love God with all your heart and love your neighbor as yourself. Let's remember that as we turn away from sin to serving God better during Lent.

THIRD SUNDAY OF

Lent

Jesus said,
"Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up."

John 2:19

Regarding Attitude and Faith

Dear Parishioners,

Few things are more important in our life than possessing the right attitude. As Christians we strive to have the attitude of Jesus. Cultivating a mature attitude in Christ is not an easy endeavor. It takes deliberate acts of time and attention to be formed in prayer and study of the faith. Prayer and study is built upon active and consistent worship of God. Isn't worship an interesting thing? God does not need our praise, He does not gain anything in particular from our worship. Yet worship is most fitting for us to give to the Divine Persons for all They have given to us. Worship is a simple return on the gifts of life and faith that God has imparted to us. In the end, it profits us for salvation and prepares us for the great mystery of Heaven.

At Gerard Wehrle's funeral this prayer was said. It appeared in a bulletin a number of years ago, but Gerard and Sue had cut it out because of its meaning. It became one of their daily prayers, and it greatly impacted their faith and daily attitude. It is an ideal prayer for capturing the type of attitude we want to espouse as disciples of Christ

BLESS THIS DAY

This day is full of beauty and adventure;
help me Lord to be fully alive to it all.

During this day may I become a more thoughtful person,
a more prayerful person, a more generous and kindly person.

Help me not to be turned in on myself
but to be sensitive and helpful to others.

Let me do nothing today that will hurt anyone,
but let me help at least a little,
to make life more pleasant for those I meet.

When night comes, may I look back on this day without regrets;
and may nobody be unhappy because of anything
I have said or done or failed to do.

Lord God, bless this day for me and all of us.
Make it a day in which we grow a little more like Your Son, and gentle as Mary, His Mother.

Peace,

Fr. Tom

3rd Sunday of Lent

John 2:15; And making a whip of cords, he drove them all, with the sheep and oxen, out of the temple; and he poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. 16. And he told those who sold the pigeons, "Take these things away; you shall not make my Father's house a house of trade."

The aggressive actions of Jesus are a prophetic sign of the Temple's imminent destruction. The expulsion of oxen, sheep, and pigeons from the precincts likewise signifies the termination of animal sacrifice in the Temple. Allegorically, church father Origen writes, "The sanctuary is the undisciplined soul, filled, not with animals and merchants, but with earthly and senseless attachments. Christ must expel them with the whip of his divine doctrine to make spiritual worship possible."

*"You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything."
EXODUS 20:4*

How many "gods" do you put before God? "Idols" do not always take the shape of physical things, things we can touch and feel. Those are easy to recognize. Many times they take the form of things we cannot touch and are much harder to spot like pride, power, ego, time, comfort or health.

We pray that we may learn to turn away from the false idols of our society—those visible and invisible.

What's your Catholic Catechism IQ?

It is the 25th anniversary of the publication of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, under (now saint) Pope John Paul II, who wrote, "The Catechism is offered to every individual who asks us to give an account of the hope that is in us (cf. 1 Pet 3:15) and who wants to know what the Catholic Church believes." Every adult Catholic is asked to prayerfully "digest" the Catechism. These questions (which will cover the whole CCC during this year) can help break it down in small bites.

The month of March is traditionally dedicated to St. Joseph, the patron of the universal Church, the foster father of our Lord, the head of the Holy Family. When one thinks of his role in salvation history, we can be confident of his desire to bring “our own history” to salvation. Consider ways to seek the intercession of St. Joseph in your family life and in your family prayer. St. Teresa of Avila wrote: “It seems that to other saints our Lord has given power to help us in only one kind of necessity; but this glorious saint, I know by my own experience, assists us in all kinds of necessities....I only request, for the love of God, that whoever will not believe me will test the truth of what I say, for he will see by experience how great a blessing it is to recommend oneself to this glorious Patriarch and to be devout to him....Whoever wants a master to instruct him how to pray, let him choose this glorious saint for his guide, and he will not lose his way.”

Dynamic Catholic Alive! The Cross

There is so much to reflect upon in the readings today. First, we can reflect on the Ten Commandments in the proper way and what their true nature is: they are guideposts to living in authentic freedom for goodness. They are not mere restrictions against fun as the world often tells us. Second, Paul reminds us that we must preach Christ crucified and never offer less than the truth about our faith to others. Christ's Passion shows us that we too must endure suffering in order to enter into glory. Finally, the Gospel shows the righteous anger of Christ and foreshadows His Resurrection from the dead. We are called to walk the road to Calvary with Christ and enter into the mystery of His suffering.

From the Parish Library – Stoltz Grand Hall – Lower Level

It is the year AD 203 in Carthage, North Africa. Perpetua, an affluent young mother, is charged with converting to Christianity and is sent to prison. But her freedom can be secured easily. All she has to do is offer one pinch of incense in honor to the Roman gods. With this simple act of devotion and loyalty to the Roman Empire she can regain her freedom and return to her son and a life of comfort. As her father pleads for Perpetua to consider the welfare of her child and the reputation of their family, she slowly makes her way to face the Roman proconsul and declare her final decision. What will it be? This inaugural episode of Catholic Heroes of the Faith presents one of the most influential, true stories of the Early Church. Catholic Heroes of the Faith is a series of animated programs for youth ages eight and older, presenting the lives of true-life heroes of the Catholic Faith. The Feast Day of Sts. Perpetua and Felicity is March 7.
