Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When doing student report cards, there was a comment the teacher could choose that read: inattentive and easily distracted. Could that comment describe your spiritual life? We can become so consumed with myriad distractions and preoccupations and lose our connection to what is really significant and important. We can become dull. This happens in our human relationships, too. We can easily take the love of others for granted, whether it be a parent, spouse, friend, or a child. We assume and presume that their love will always be there and do very little to cultivate, rejuvenate, and deepen it. Presumption can become a great sin.

We do the same thing with God and our spiritual lives. We presume that God will be merciful. Because we believe that in the end God is going to forgive us anyway, then why put a lot of effort into things now? What's the point? It's far easier to find a comfortable spot, curl up and take a nap! There is no immediate urgency to staying awake and attentive, so we think, and we simply fly by the seat of our pants. Assuming and presuming too much about our relationships, especially our relationship with God, can lead to neglect and abuse. It can even lead to a sense of entitlement, where we actually believe that something is due us without much effort on our part.

Folks who are distracted and preoccupied can find their relationships, especially the primary ones, drifting away.

You can actually be married to someone for many years and wake up one morning realizing that you really do not know them or truly recognize them. We have to desire God in order to recognize God. We have to open our hearts, minds, and souls to His Presence so that we can be rejuvenated and refreshed. But we cannot do this if we are distracted or napping. We have to be awake and alert! As a young child eagerly watches for and anticipates that arrival of their parent home, so too we must watch for God's presence. If the anticipation of God's arrival does not excite us and rouse us, then we need to ask why. The wise person keeps vigilant watch, knowing that in the end they will not be disappointed.

An Attitude of Gratitude

Dear Parishioners:

As we approach Thanksgiving there are many opportunities and occasions to celebrate our thanks. I hope you will be able to participate in some of them.

- ✠ This weekend we celebrate the Solemn Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This feast day ends our Sunday celebrations in Ordinary Time and prepares us for the coming Advent Season. The Church invites us to ponder the simple Kingship of Christ in our lives. How does our manner of living, our way of relating and our interior attitude reflect the heart of our Crucified King?
- ✠ 42nd Annual Thanksgiving Ecumenical Service: Tuesday, November 24 at 7pm here at IHM. There will be a collection to support our SVDP food pantry. Let us gather with our neighbors to praise and thank the Lord for all the blessings He has bestowed on our New Melle community. Gathering together with fellow believers in prayer, song and fellowship is a real grace.
- ✠ Mass on Thanksgiving Day will be 9am in church. I hope you can attend. My reasons for giving thanks grow each day and I pray that you too have experienced the blessings of God's providential and attentive love.

The most natural expression for a mature disciple of Christ ought to be gratitude. The attitude of one who has reflected upon the great sacrifice of Jesus is one of thanksgiving for the unmerited gift of redemption. In all things we should thank the Lord for His goodness to us.

Filled with thanksgiving,

Fr. Tom

Our Lord Jesus Christ the King—Dear A

[At the Last Judgment the King will say,] "I was a stranger and you received me.... The righteous will then answer... 'When, Lord, did we... welcome you....' The King will reply, 'I tell you, whenever you did this for one of the least important, you did it for me!'" Matthew 25:35-48

On the wall was a big target and on a nearby table were many darts. Dr. Smith told the students to draw a picture of someone that they disliked or someone who had made them angry, and he would allow them to throw darts at the person's picture. Many images were drawn and with great enthusiasm. The class lined up and began throwing darts. Some of the students threw their darts with such force that their targets were ripping apart. After everyone had their turn, Dr. Smith removed the target from the wall. Underneath the target was a picture of Jesus. A hush fell over the room as each student viewed the mangled picture of Jesus; holes and jagged marks covered His face and His eyes were pierced. Dr. Smith said only these words... "In as much as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

from Fr. Mark Link S.J. Vision 2000

Candlelight Rorate Caeli Mass

6:45am Monday, December 14, Church

The Rorate Caeli Mass is a traditional Advent devotion in which a Mass in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary for Advent is offered just before dawn, with no lighting other than candles on the altar, windowsills, and handheld. Those who attend can expect to be rewarded with a uniquely beautiful Mass.

The Mass takes its title, Rorate Caeli ("Drop down dew, ye heavens") from the initial Latin words of Isaiah 45:8. In the dimly lit setting, priest and faithful prepare to honor the Light of the world, Who is soon to be born, and offer praise to God for the gift of Our Lady. As the Mass proceeds and sunrise approaches, the church becomes progressively brighter, illumined by the sun as our Faith is illumined by Christ.

We will have weekday Mass at 8am as usual.

Contributions, Nov. 14/15

Will be reported next week

"...whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me." —Matthew 25:40

Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But, generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving on one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it's not convenient; when it's not on our schedule, but on the other person's schedule.

Let us pray . . . that we are generous with our gifts of time, talent and treasure especially when it's not always convenient for us.

Needed at the Pantry

RECENTLY UPDATED:

Chili beans, vegetable soup, spaghetti sauce in a can, tuna, sugar, fruit juice, brownie mixes, cake mixes and icing, cold cereal, sugar, canned corn, canned chicken, canned chili, saltines, canned ravioli or spaghetti, hot chocolate, mac and cheese, snacks for kids' lunch's, men's/ladies deodorant, shaving lotion, shampoo, body wash, toothpaste and brushes, canned fruit (peaches, pears, fruit cocktail), tea bags, oil,

Today as we celebrate Christ the King, we hear Jesus say: "...whatever you did for one of the least brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

Knowing that we find the face of Christ in the poor, this month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul assisted 14 families, providing them food worth approximately $1344.00 We also provided assistance to our Neighbors in need with utilities, twinning with other sister SVDP conferences etc.. This additional assistance totaled $2847.98

Gift Angels will be on the tree beginning the weekend of November 28/29. All gifts need to be returned to church no later than December 13 (some will be marked for return before that date). Thanks to everyone who will participate in this yearly effort (especially important this year!)—your generosity helps give to others the joy of the Christmas season. God bless all of you!

P.S. The church is open during the week if you care to pick up a gift angel then.

What's Your Catholic Catechism IQ?

"The Catechism of the Catholic Church is a statement of the Church's faith and of Catholic doctrine, attested to or illumined by Sacred Scripture, the Apostolic Tradition and the Church's Magisterium. I declare it to be a sure norm for teaching the faith." (Pope St. John Paul II)

Birtheright Christmas Cards

Inside Verse:

Wishing you joy, peace, and God's Many blessings

The Pro-Life Committee will be selling Birtheright Christmas cards after all Masses the weekends of November 28/29 and December 5/6. Please consider supporting Birtheright when planning your Christmas card purchases. Cost is $7 for a box of 10 cards.

Simply believing in the existence of God is not exactly what I would call a commitment. After all, even the devil believes that God exists! Believing has to change the way we live.

REMEMBER the Fallen - HONOR those who Serve TEACH our children the value of freedom

The New Melle VFW and VFW Auxiliary is a proud sponsor of Wreaths Across America at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery and other National Cemeteries across the country. We are also involved in placing wreaths at local cemeteries, including veterans buried at Immaculate Heart of Mary cemetery.

New Melle VFW and VFW Auxiliary has made it our mission to honor and remember as many heroes as possible with a remembrance wreath. You can help by sponsoring a wreath, getting your employer involved to sponsor wreaths or raising money in our community or circle of peers to help place a wreath on a loved one's resting place.

Our parishioners are invited to place a wreath on the grave of their loved one who is a veteran. Wreaths cost $15, a portion of which goes towards care packages for active military members serving overseas. Please complete and return the information below by December 6. Orders will then be forwarded to VFW. Wreaths will be delivered to IHM on December 18.

If you would like to sponsor and place a wreath for a loved one buried in another cemetery, please use the form below.

Congratulations to Nancy Ast, who has recently completed her year long journey and training to minister to and be of service to others as a Spiritual Director. In a ceremony on November 30th, Nancy will receive her formal certificate in Spiritual Direction from Archbishop Rozanski. Please keep her in your prayers as she makes herself available to minister and journey with others as she embarks upon this new phase of her own life. If you would like to speak to Nancy she can be reached at 636-357-3457.

PSR Corner

Every PSR class has a chosen patron saint which catechists help students learn about. After 8 years, students will have learned more about 8 folks in God's Holy Hall of Fame. Meet the 7th grade patron—St. Joseph. A few verses in Matthew and Luke tell us all we know about St. Joseph. They provide just enough information to demonstrate why he was the divine choice to become the husband of Mary and the foster father of Jesus. Joseph was genealogically perfect for these roles. A distant descendant of King David, he gave Christ the King his royal lineage. Joseph also came from the right hometown. He was from Bethlehem, the city that Scripture predicted would produce the messiah (see Micah 5:1). And as a carpenter (see Matthew 13:55), Joseph was poor—Christ's condition of preference.

Scripture portrays Joseph as open to God, obedient, upright, and, above all, kind. The saint displayed all of these qualities in his handling of Mary's pregnancy. Joseph was open to God, and in a dream a divine messenger told him to take Mary home as his wife. Joseph did exactly as he was told. Joseph's wise dealing with Mary is a model for us when we face complex moral and personal issues. He subordinated his feelings to do what God required. He was open to whatever God wanted, and when he sensed the divine will, he obeyed. St. Joseph is patron of the universal Church.

St. Paul Library / Lighthouse CD Resources

(Note: With close to 4000 items, the Parish Library is located in the Grand Hall past the restrooms. It is open during the week-normal business hours-and works on an honor system. Items from the Lighthouse CD rack are located and available in the Narthex

From the Parish Library: Downstairs Grand Hall

Wow what can I say, this movie was realistic, practical, believable and yet also supernatural. Unlike many Christian films that often have cheesy plots, ideas, or delivery, this movie was the kind of movie that can rock someone, even an unbeliever, to the core. I pray regularly for God to portray His truth on the Big Screen in Hollywood, and lately some gems like this movie have come forth. Such an upgrade from what we have seen many "Christian" movies be in the past. Sure it's based on a true story so that may have helped, but really I believe the execution of the movie was captivating, inspiring and very moving emotionally. It confronts the reality that an "unbeliever" may think they are basing their beliefs on facts, but the reality is they are still having "faith" in many things that they cannot see or prove. So the idea that a believer is the only one having "faith" is a lie. Even someone who believes in God wholeheartedly, and has ministered the gospel to 1000s of lives, I was incredibly inspired, encouraged and motivated to more adequately share the love of Jesus with others after watching this movie. The fact that there is simply so much hard evidence of Christ's death, burial and resurrection, more so than any other major event in history, should speak volumes to any person who doubt Jesus even existed, let alone was God in the flesh.

"Lee Strobel probes with bulldog-like tenacity the evidence for the truth of biblical Christianity."-Bruce M. Metzger, Ph.D., Professor of New Testament, Emeritus, Princeton Theological Seminary

"Lee Strobel asks the questions a tough-minded skeptic would ask. His book is so good I read it out loud to my wife evenings after dinner. Every inquirer should have it."-Phillip E. Johnson, Law Professor, University of California at Berkeley

Act of Dedication of the Human Race to Jesus Christ the King

Most Sweet Jesus, Redeemer of the human race, look down upon us humbly prostrate before You.

We are Yours, and Yours we wish to be;

but to be more surely united with You,

behold each one of us freely consecrates himself
today to Your Most Sacred Heart.

Many indeed have never known You;

many, too, despising Your precepts,
have rejected You.

Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus,
and draw them to Your Sacred Heart.

Be King, O Lord, not only of the faithful who have never forsaken You,

but also of the prodigal children who have abandoned You;

grant that they may quickly return to their Father's house,

lest they die of wretchedness and hunger.

Be King of those who are deceived

by erroneous opinions,

or whom discord keeps aloof, and call them back to the harbor of Truth and the unity of Faith,

so that soon there may be but one flock and one Shepherd.

Grant, O Lord, to Your Church

assurance of freedom and immunity from harm;

give tranquility of order to all nations;

make the earth resound from pole to pole

with one cry:

Praise to the Divine Heart

that wrought our salvation;

to It be glory and honor forever. Amen.

#27. A plenary indulgence is granted to the faithful, who piously recite the Act of Dedication of the Human Race to Jesus Christ the King, if it is recited publicly on the feast of our Lord Jesus Christ the King, and piously carry out the precepts in Norm #23 listed below. - Say one "Our Father" and one "Hail Mary" for the intentions of the Pope - Make a Sacramental Confession within a week of (before or after) the Feast of Christ the King - Worthily receive Holy Communion (ideally on the Feast of Christ the King)- that one be free from all attachment to sin, even venial sin.
