*"The stone the builders rejected has become the corner stone..."
(Matthew 21:42)*

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of His day, as well as ordinary citizens. Living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be "rejected" by others in today's society. For example, saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is sign that God is alive and well!

Let us pray . . . that we are not afraid of living our faith for fear of being rejected by others.

Needed at the Pantry

canned baked beans, chicken noodle soup, vegetable soup, Spaghetti sauce in cans, tuna, tuna helper, body wash, sugar, fruit juices, barbecue sauce, brownie mixes, cake mixes and icing, instant mashed potatoes, and cold cereal.

The good news of this Gospel is that all we need to do is let God tend us and bring us to produce good fruit. All we need do is be faithful; God will take care of the rest.

Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring the love and mercy of Jesus to those who feel left out and abandoned.

PSR Corner

PSR Has Begun!

We had an initial gathering on Wednesday, September 9th for all families who were able to join us for a brief welcome, meet and greet and for the picking up of textbooks or other notes from the catechist. At this point, along with the textbooks, all families who have registered should have received at least three things.

1. Their log in information from www.MyCatholicFaithDelivered.com and
2. A welcome, introduction note from the grade level catechist and
3. A Faith and Life Family Guide for each particular grade level. If you have not received all these things, please contact Shawn at the parish office and he will help get you on your way.

A Matter of Life and Death

- Why is it wrong to help someone commit suicide?
- Don't people have a right to die with dignity rather than being a burden to others?
- Does the Church teach that the terminally-ill must be kept alive by machines for as long as possible?

- How can I plan now to make sure that my legal and medical wishes are respected when I'm near death?

In this booklet you'll find smart, solid answers to these questions and many more. 20 Answers: End of Life Issues unravels the controversies and confusions surrounding euthanasia, assisted suicide, and the rights of patients in our uncertain healthcare future.

The Human Rights Issue of our Age?

- Is it possible to know when life begins?
- Shouldn't women be able to control their own bodies?
- What if a pregnant woman's life is in danger?
- Why don't pro-lifers spend their energy making life better for people who are already born?

In this booklet you'll find smart, solid answers to these questions and many more. 20 Answers: Abortion will deepen your understanding of this critical moral issue, and give you the knowledge you need to explain it to others.

The 20 Answers series from Catholic Answers offers hard facts, powerful arguments, and clear explanations of the most important topics facing the Church and the world—all in a compact, easy-to-read package.

28th Sunday of Ordinary Time Year A

[Jesus told this parable.] "A king. . . prepared a wedding feast for his son. He sent his servants to tell the invited guests 'Come to the wedding feast!' But the invited guests... went about their business: one went to his farm, another to his store. [Then the king said to his servants,] 'Now go. . . and invite to the feast as many people as you find.' And Jesus concluded, "Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Matthew 22:2-5,9, 14

The "cast of characters" in Jesus' parable is as follows: he king is God; the wedding feast, God's Kingdom; the first guests, God's Chosen People; the latter guests, Gentiles and sinners. Jesus' parable invites me to ask: To what extent am I responding to God's invitation to the wedding feast the way the first guests did: giving priority to my business rather than to the invitation?

Pope's Intentions for October:

The Laity's Mission in the Church

We pray that by the virtue of baptism, the laity, especially women, may participate more in areas of responsibility in the Church.

What does it mean to form my conscience?

Catholics have a long tradition of engagement in the public square. Sometimes that engagement requires making difficult moral decisions that impact our own lives and those of others. Our conscience can help guide the decisions we make. The Second Vatican Council guides us: "Always summoning [one] to love good and avoid evil, the voice of conscience can when necessary speak to [one's] heart more specifically: do this, shun that" (Gaudium et Spes 16). However, our conscience doesn't just come to us when we are born. We must work throughout our lives to form it through prayer, learning, and conversation.

How do I form my conscience?

It takes time to form our consciences so that we can make well-reasoned judgments about particular, real-life situations. The Church teaches that it is important to work continually on conscience formation so we can be prepared to make decisions whenever the opportunity arises. Some specific ideas to form your conscience are:

- 1) Begin by being open to the truth and what is right.
- 2) Study Sacred Scripture and the teaching of the Church.
- 3) Examine the facts and background information about various choices and be discerning in where we gather information.
- 4) Prayerfully reflect to discern the will of God (Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, no. 18).

Additionally, it is important to consider how our community of faith can help us form good consciences through some of these steps:

- 1) Seek the prudent advice and good example of trusted leaders and others to support and enlighten our conscience.
- 2) Learn about the authoritative teaching of the Church.
- 3) Pray for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to help us develop our conscience.
- 4) Regularly partake in an examination of conscience to hear God's voice in your life.¹

Doing the work of forming our consciences can seem daunting. Fortunately, we have many church teachings that can help us in this important task. Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship is an important resource for U.S. Catholics and helps us prayerfully reflect on how we can apply Church teaching in our civic life. "Conscience is not something that allows us to justify doing whatever we want, nor is it a mere "feeling" about what we should or should not do. Rather, conscience is the voice of God resounding in the human heart, revealing the truth to us and calling us to do what is good while shunning what is evil."²

Here are some questions for further reflection:

1. When has my conscience guided me to "do good and avoid evil"?
2. What are some key resources I can use to form my conscience?
3. Forming conscience is a "lifelong task." What do I do to regularly form my conscience? What more should I do?

Save the Date!
Advent Prayer Breakfast—December 12

Awaiting Christ our Hope
Encountering our Incarnate Lord
in Advent and Christmas

October is the month of the Holy Rosary!

- 1 Make the Sign of the Cross and say the Apostles' Creed
- 2 Say the Our Father
- 3 Say three Hail Marys
- 4 Say the Glory Be
- 5 Announce the first mystery and then say the Our Father
- 6 Say 10 Hail Marys while meditating on the mystery
- 7 Say the Glory Be (Optional: Say the O My Jesus prayer requested by Mary at Fatima)
- 8 Announce the second mystery; then say the Our Father and repeat these steps as you continue through the remaining mysteries.
9. Say the Hail, Holy Queen
10. Make the Sign of the Cross

Find the mysteries here:
<https://bit.ly/1hNNOc4>

The repetition in the Rosary leads one into restful and contemplative prayer related to each Mystery. The gentle repetition of the words helps us to enter into the silence of our hearts, where Christ's spirit dwells.

There is much evil in the world. It divides and scatters the members of the Body of Christ. Uniting in prayer and in good works informed by our Catholic Faith is an excellent way to combat evil. I strongly urge the men of our parish to unite themselves and their families with the men and families of the Knights of Columbus. Simply go to www.kofc.org/joinus and follow the prompts. Use promo code MCGIVNEY2020 and your first year's dues are free! When asked for our council number, enter 11656. Don't delay! Do it today! You will be glad you did.

A great way to organize emergency meals for the people of our parish!
