The first reading might be what Jesus was talking about when He scolded the disciples. They wanted to stop an exorcist whom they didn't know. In both cases, whether prophesying or driving out demons, someone wanted them to stop. Why? Because the persons doing those things were not members of the group. In the gospel, the disciples objected simply because they didn't know the ones who were casting out demons. Back in Moses' days, the two "renegades" were actually on the list, they just weren't present with the rest gathered around Moses. Both Joshua and the disciples of Jesus thought they should control who could do God's work and who couldn't.

It reminds me of the pastor sprinkling people with holy water during Easter season. If I didn't feel the water, I was disappointed because I was "left out." But Father was intending to bless everyone; he just couldn't control where the holy water went. I wanted to control the pastor, to make him throw the water more carefully.

The temptation to control things is pretty common, but we can't be truly at peace till we allow God to be the One in control. God loves all people, even those who don't know Him. So if we see someone who has a spiritual gift, it could be God's way of helping that person to know about His love. It might not be prophesying or driving out demons. There are many non-Christians who are very generous or patient or wise, who could come to faith if they realized that God was acting through them. You don't have to bowl them over with evangelistic fervor. Just the observation that you see God's love in them might get them thinking about their faith.

The Apostles Creed reminds us that the Church is catholic, or universal. All are welcome, because Jesus died for everyone. As Moses said in the first reading, wouldn't it be great if God sent His gifts of the Spirit to them all?

An Autumn Prayer

O God of Creation,
You have blessed us with the changing of the seasons.
As we embrace these autumn months,
may the earlier setting of the sun
remind us to take time to rest.
May the crunch of the leaves beneath our feet remind us of the brevity of this earthly life.
May the steam of our breath in the cool air remind us that it is You who give us Your breath of life.
May the scurrying of the squirrels and the migration of the birds remind us that You call us to follow Your will.
We praise you for Your goodness forever and ever.
Amen.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

[Jesus said,] "If anyone should cause one of these little ones to lose his faith in me, it would be better for that person to be thrown into the sea." MARK 9:42

O. Henry is well known for the surprise endings of his stories. One story concerns an emotionally starved child. She's always asking her father if she can sit on his lap. He always puts her off, saying, "Go outside and play." The inevitable happens: The girl grows up accepting affection from anyone who offers it; she becomes a prostitute. When she dies, Peter says to Jesus, "We've got a bad one coming today!" Then comes the "surprise ending." Jesus says to Peter, "When she comes, let her into heaven; but when her father comes, hold him responsible for her life."

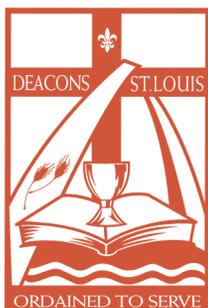

How vigilant am I not to do anything that might cause anyone—especially a child—to lose faith in Jesus?

Children, especially, set their watches by our clock. (Anonymous)

Deacons: Serving You Since A.D. 33!

Please Support Next Weekend's Deacon Formation Collection

Did you know that the first Christian martyr, St. Stephen, ordained at the hands of the Apostles as one of the first seven deacons, lived and died proclaiming the Joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ? In the last four decades, hundreds of men have proclaimed the same Gospel Joy with their own lives, lives of loving service that have in turn changed countless other lives for the better. Called by Christ to minister to the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, our Deacons are preaching God's Word to us, praying fervently for us, and caring compassionately for us each and every day. And each year, many men discern that same call and begin the process of formation that, God willing, leads to ordination as Deacons. You can help support these men as they discern God's will in their lives. Deacon formation in the Archdiocese relies heavily on the support of the annual Deacon Collection held this year on October 6 and 7th.

“Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.”
MARK 9:41

Does your life reflect the life of Jesus? Remember, we were made in His image. We tend to forget this. When others see you, do they see the face of Jesus? When you look at others, do you see the face of Jesus in them?

We pray ... remembering that we will be judged by what we do for the least among us, may we give generously and joyfully to support all those in need.

Needed at the Pantry:

corn and green beans; pork and beans; peanut butter; canned fruit: mandarin oranges, peaches, fruit cocktail, apple sauce; tuna helper, hamburger helper; canned chicken; ketchup; sugar; vegetable oil; BBQ sauce; Bisquick; jello; all-purpose cleaning supplies, toilet paper

In today’s Gospel Jesus tells His disciples: “Anyone who gives you a drink of water because you belong to Christ will not, I assure you, go without his reward.” On September 27, the Church celebrated the feast of St. Vincent de Paul. The members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul are on the front line in laboring for the poor, they are among the first to know their real needs.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist many families, and provided food, funds for utility, rent and other bills. God Bless You!

PSR Corner

Every PSR class has a chosen patron saint which catechists help students learn about. After 8 years, students will have learned more about 8 folks in God's Holy Hall of Fame. Meet the 1st grade patron— St. Francis of Assisi

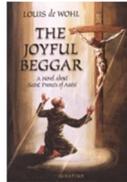

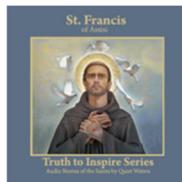

This is the story of the struggles St. Francis endured in his life, starting with the struggles with his family, followed by his struggle to rebuild the Church. The story includes his love for God and his desire to follow God's will in all he did from starting a community of Brothers, Sisters, and Preaching. The story not only includes St. Francis' spiritual acceptance of God's will but also his acceptance of the wounds Jesus suffered on the cross.

Mysteries, Marvels and Miracles in the Life of the Church:

St. Francis of Assisi (Feast: October 4th)

Apart from the Lord Jesus Himself, few saints have had such an impact on the life of the Church as St. Francis of Assisi. Where does one begin to highlight, summarize his influence on the life of the Church or the mysteries, marvels and miracles associated with his life? Why not “walk with Francis” by reading a good book or devotional on his life? Check out the parish library downstairs. There is a special section of books and videos on St. Francis. For more convenience, check out the resources on Formed.org listed below. Remember that every person in the parish has been gifted a free subscription to this resource. Enter parish code 04c2dc

A great report from the Annual Catholic Appeal.....

Our 2018 goal was $64,570 - our actual total to date is $70,685, a 9.4% increase!
Our new donor goal was 41 - our actual number of new donors was 50, a 20% increase!

Thanks to all who participated in this year's effort, both those who were able to help financially (41% of our parish) and those who prayed for the success of the Appeal. We also thank our Blessed Mother for her intercession.

“Living the Mission”

Experience the workings of the Holy Spirit through the evangelization by word and song of Dan Dirkes and Caroline Gambale-Dirkes. Based in Ann Arbor, Michigan, this husband and wife team has responded to Pope St. John Paul the Great's call for New Evangelization. Their multi-generational ministry “2Tim4Ministries” takes its name from scripture 2 Timothy 4:1-5 where the apostle Paul challenges us to preach the gospel and perform the work of an evangelist. Inspired by the Holy Spirit they have ministered to families, youth and adults across the US and Canada. Don't miss this dynamic conference. “Live the Mission.” It will change your life. “These Signs Will Accompany Those Who Believe” Lecture Series Kenrick-Glennon Seminary invites you and your guests to attend the lecture “These Signs Will Accompany Those Who Believe: The Role of Healing in Evangelization” with guest speaker Dr. Mary Healy on Thursday, October 4 at 7:30pm in the Auditorium, 5200 Glennon Drive, St. Louis.

When Jesus first commissioned His disciples to continue His own Mission, He made healing and deliverance an intrinsic part of their task and thus an essential part of the Church’s work of Evangelization today. Our risen Lord is truly alive and wants to heal and set people free to experience the freedom that belongs to sons and daughters of the King. The Gospel is good news precisely because it comes with Divine power.

Dr. Mary Healy is Professor of Sacred Scripture at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit and an international speaker on topics related to Scripture, evangelization, healing, and the spiritual life. For a ride call Debbie Gillespie 636-398-4971.

Livestream the lecture. Info at
