MEDITATION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

[The disciples had fished all night.] As the sun was rising, Jesus stood at the water's edge, but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Then he asked them, "Children, haven't you caught anything?" "Not a thing," they answered. He said to them, "Throw your net out on the right side of the boat, and you will catch some." So they threw the net out and could not pull it back in, because they caught so many fish. JOHN 21:4-6

Harry Lloyd once said, "I thank God that I live in a country where dreams can come true, where failure sometimes is the first step to success." We can say the same about our faith-as today's gospel story illustrates. Can I recall a time when some failure led me to discover Jesus and his help?

Make ready for the Christ, whose smile, like lightning, sets free the song of everlasting glory that now sleeps in your paper flesh, like dynamite.

THOMAS MERTON
Mark Link S.J. Action 2000

"I am going fishing."

What an announcement! If asked who made it, and not told it was a Bible quote, we might guess "Grandpa" or "Uncle Fred," or admit, "I said that last summer!" But it is a Bible quote, from today's Gospel. The person who said it also once declared, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Yes, it's Peter! So today's announcement seems quite the comedown. Last Sunday Jesus said, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." But Peter seems determined to return to his pre-apostolic occupation, until Jesus intervenes, making Peter's later announcement deeper, "Lord, you know that I love you," and Peter's apostolic calling clearer, "Tend my sheep." Peter does so. Acts presents the consequences: Peter declares, "We must obey God rather than men." As Revelation proclaims, "Worthy is the Lamb" – to receive Peter's lifelong service, and ours.

HOW'S THE FISHING?

Because we've seen brutal tortures inflicted on persecuted Christians worldwide, how impressive are Peter and the other disciples in today's Acts of the Apostles. Ordered to stop teaching, Peter, speaking for all, refuses. Yet such courage was not their initial response. As today's Gospel opens, these same disciples seem to resume their former vocation, fishing. But their choice proves fruitless until Jesus, unrecognized, gets them to admit that their "old job," though safe and secure, has failed. Only when they obey Jesus do they succeed – fish – and recognize their Helper: "It is the Lord." What happens next teaches us, too. Jesus tells the disciples to bring him the fruit of their work done at his command, "some of the fish you just caught." But breakfast is already waiting, "a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread." Jesus wants our best efforts, but he can always prepare and provide what we need: a comforting thought when our best efforts seem to fail.

WHO'S COMING FOR BREAKFAST?

After providing a catch none of us could accomplish, Jesus offers an intimacy any of us can provide: "Come, have breakfast." Revelation's heavenly liturgy envisions a community "countless in number." So the "one hundred fifty-three fish," Saint Jerome suggests, equals the Mediterranean's full number of species – the Gospel's way of asserting that the Church must have room for everyone. Peter drags that full net to Jesus, keeping it safe and not torn. Pope Francis calls this unity our "reconciled diversity." How appropriate to live Saint Augustine's timeless ideal, especially during this Jubilee Year of Mercy: "In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, diversity; in all things, charity." After their breakfast, Jesus does not ask Peter to profess his faith again, to confess his sin again, or even to apologize again for his denial. Jesus asks Peter to declare his love. So may our work in union with the risen Jesus be fruitful, our community inclusive, our love selfless, our mercy boundless, and our witness faithful – even unto death.

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – Peter and the Papacy

Christ tells Peter: "Feed my lambs" and "Tend my sheep" (Jn 21:15-19). In the Gospel of Matthew, we read: "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church" (Mt. 16:18). These verses, along with many others, show that Peter was first in authority among the Apostles (Petrine supremacy). Through Apostolic Succession, Pope Francis is the successor of Peter, as Bishop of Rome and "perpetual, visible source and foundation of the unity of the Church" (Compendium, 182). How does the Pope inspire you to live out your faith? archstl.org/dynamic

WHAT QUALIFIES a man to be a Deacon?

Prayer. Humility. Service. Grace. Suffering. Love. A willingness to be changed and to offer his life in unpaid sacrificial service to God, to the Church, to any and all in need of God's mercy.

Have you signed up to pray for vocations? The sign-up sheet is in the narthex. When it is your turn, Fr. Tom will give you the icon, a candle, and a load of information to ponder. When you return it the next week, another family will take it home and continue praying. Let's keep it going!

Celebrating the Easter Season

The People of God are pretty good at offering ways to celebrate the Lenten season. But what about Easter? Lent is for 40 days; Easter 50. Consider ways you might celebrate the season. One such way is to recall your baptism. What of putting your baptismal certificate and photos in a prominent place? What about offering special prayers for your godparents and sponsors of Baptism / Confirmation? What about praying for any godchildren you might have? And how about thanking God for your parents, that despite any shortcomings one may potentially feel towards them, that they are the ones who brought you to be initiated into the Christian faith, offering a pledge of eternal life for you in the Sacraments. Here are some photos from the Easter Vigil (thanks to Laura Orf) of Kacey and Kayla Kenney who received Sacraments that evening.

DO YOU NEED SOME SPIRITUAL RENEWAL? The Women's ACTS retreat for our Parish is May 19 —22.

Easter Gift: Free Book from IHM to you (Narthex)

Giving and receiving mercy is central to living a life of passion and purpose. Yet, for some reason, most people believe they are either too young or too old, not religious enough, or simply don't have enough time to live a life uncommon. The perfect companion for the Year of Mercy called for by Pope Francis, the book provides an encounter with the heart of God. Once again bringing to light the genius of Catholicism, bestselling author Matthew Kelly has enlisted the help of 24 incredible authors who witness to the power of God's mercy, provide simple practical tips on how to be an instrument of that mercy and bring hope to anyone searching for deeper meaning in their life. This book will touch the core of who you are. In the end, we all need God's mercy. So, no matter where you are, no matter what you have been through, there is not a better time than right now to rediscover the incredible power of God's mercy. Beautiful Mercy is an invitation to rediscover God's unconditional love so that we can share it with others.

And don't forget to pick up the devotional "Little White Book" in the Narthex as well— while supplies last!

THE COURAGE TO LOVE

Catholic IQ Answers

1. (b) The Eastern Churches often celebrate all three at baptism, even with infants.
2. (d) From age to age, the Church has honored and celebrated holy persons from all states of life. Their lives offer us examples of faith, hope, and charity.
3. (d) The status of the American Catholic Church was changed by Pope Pius X early in the twentieth century as the Church grew larger and stronger with the arrival of immigrants.
4. (c) These are perhaps the hardest words of the Our Father to pray from the heart.
5. (a) Mary appeared to refugees hiding in La yang during a period of intense persecution (1798). Two hundred years later, on August 21, 1998, 10,000 Vietnamese-Americans celebrated the event at the U.S. Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.
6. (a) The reserved Sacrament is the Real Presence of Christ. The faithful can see at a glance whether it is present in the tabernacle by noticing whether the sanctuary lamp is lit.
7. (a) In the early days of the Church, both the first and last day of an octave were numbered, which accounts for the word's derivation from the Latin word for eight. Today we would refer to it as a week instead of eight days.
8. (d) Pilate was afraid of the shouting mob even though he believed Jesus was not guilty.
9. (a) It is customary to genuflect or bow as a sign of reverence.
10. (b) These vows are called the evangelical counsels.

THE CHORAL ARTS SINGERS AT IHM

The Choral Arts Singers under the direction of Kimberly White and accompanied by Sara Shroth will present their Spring Concert

"The Song and the Dance" on Sunday, May 1 at 3:00 pm at Immaculate Heart of Mary in New Melle, MO. Songs will be sung in English, German, Spanish and Latin. The Singers have performed in Taiwan, China, Germany, Italy and Austria. They have also sung at Carnegie Hall in New York and The Lincoln Center in Washington, DC. Share the joy of spring with us. Donations are always accepted. An offering of canned goods for the St. Vincent dePaul Society will be appreciated.

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

We are looking for additional members for our Stewardship/ACA Committee. The 2016 Campaign for the ACA is coming up in April. The committee helps with planning the campaign and with the pledge weekends in Weber Hall before and after the Masses. Contact Laura Orf in the parish office 636-398-5270 if you are interested.

Pro-Life Meeting

The IHM Pro-Life Committee will have a meeting at 7:00 pm on Monday, April 18 in Weber Hall. All members of the parish who have a passion for the protection of human life are invited to attend. Prior to the meeting, we will say the rosary at 6:30 pm in St. Joseph's Chapel.
