MEDITATION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL (10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME)

Jesus came upon a funeral procession. The dead man was a widow's only son. Moved to pity, Jesus said to the boy, "Young man, get up I tell you!" The dead man sat up.....and Jesus gave him back to his mother." Luke 7:14-15

Jesus' miracles are the skyrockets of history. They are unmistakable signs that a new day has dawned on earth. Jesus opens the eyes of the blind---behind the miracle is a deeper meaning—it is a "sign" for us to open our eyes to the new day. Jesus raises the dead---behind the miracle is a deeper meaning, also. It is a "sign" for us to open ourselves to the new power present in Jesus and to let him raise us from death to life.

What tends to keep me from opening my eyes and myself to the deeper meaning and message contained in Jesus' miracles? "The real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands but in seeing with new eyes." Marcel Proust

HEARTS FORMED BY FAITH

Dear parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate our patronal feast day for the parish. We rejoice in the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and celebrate her maternal love for us. Today as a parish family we ask the Blessed Mother to lead each of us to a deeper union with her Son, Jesus Christ.

As disciples of the Lord we strive for two essential elements in our life of faith – personal relationship and confident articulation. All of us strive for a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, formed by the church, nourished by prayer and embraced in our service to God and neighbor. A personal relationship with Jesus Christ is not a matter of emotional subjectivity, but a genuine religious experience. We are bound to Christ through our religious experience and expressed faith. The Holy Spirit and Holy Mother Church act as safeguards for shaping and molding the various misconceptions and distortions that all of us are prone to encounter as we seek the Lord. Sacred Tradition and Sacred Scripture help us to weed out the bad seeds that would contaminate our relationship with Jesus. One of the real dangers of professing a personal relationship with the Lord apart from the community of the Church is to make the Lord little more than a mirror for our own needs and personality. One can worship the “God of Themselves” without ever realizing it. Our faith is indeed personal, but it is lived in communion with the Church.

The second element in our life of faith is confident articulation. Call it professing your faith if you want, but the goal is the same. We want to know our faith and what we believe as Catholics. We want to have an answer for ourselves first and foremost. That doesn’t mean we have to know everything about our faith, but we want to strive for a growing confidence that we understand the what and why of our beliefs. Few things will be more painful or potentially dangerous to our growing faith if we are caught in a conversation, unable to answer simple questions about it.

As we celebrate the Immaculate Heart of Mary I pray you make use of the vast resources at your disposal for personal formation and study. The Formed program is already paid for by the parish and just awaits your logging in. Our parish library has an abundance of options for reading, audio or video formation. All it takes is desire and discipline. May this summer be a time of deepening desire under the patronage and inspiration of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. May the Blessed Mother’s total devotion to Jesus model for us the discipline necessary to make our formation fruitful. Learning with love makes all study meaningful and worthwhile. Learning with love can make the experience of formation less of a chore and more of an adventure. The disciple of Christ we all long to become is just hours away when we begin to explore the beauty of our faith.

Peace,

Fr. Tom

Summer and the “Year of Mercy” --- What are your plans?

Pope Francis has decreed a special year of mercy (beginning December 8, 2015 - November 20, 2016) in which he is directing the faithful to reflect and act on the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. He writes, "It is my burning desire that, during this Jubilee, the Christian people may reflect on the corporal and spiritual works of mercy." We have mentioned some suggestions in past bulletins for the various works, including some in Matthew Kelly's book Beautiful Mercy. (Free books available in the narthex). We will continue to do that throughout the summer. Below is the “ancient list.” (See great movie “Little Boy” to hear more about this “ancient list.”) What might you or your family do to enter into this special year of mercy?

Corporal Works of Mercy

D=Dead (Dead, Bury the) H=Homeless (Homeless, Shelter) T=Thirsty (Thirsty, Give Drink to) H=Hungry (Hungry, Feed the) I=Imprisoned (Imprisoned, Visit) N=Naked (Naked, Clothe the) S=Sick (Sick, Visit the)

Memory Aid: DH-THINS (Symbol: Designated Hitter stands in for the pitcher.....THINS = symbol for the impoverished. We stand in for Christ.... Christ has no body now but ours.

Spiritual Works of Mercy

Pray for the living and the dead F=Forgive all injuries A=Admonish sinners

B=Bear Wrongs patiently R=Relieve the Sorrowful I= Instruct the Ignorant

C=Counsel the Doubtful

Memory Aid: (Symbol: Clothing others in the (P)rayer F.A.B.R.I.C / shawl of spiritual works)
Think of clothing others in a garment with the letter P (for Prayer) on it.

RENEWAL OF WEDDING VOWS

The members of the IHM Knights of Columbus, as a part of their Domestic Church initiative, invite ALL married couples to participate in the Renewal of their wedding vows. The renewal will take place on Father's Day weekend, June 18 and 19 at all Masses. This event will give couples the opportunity to bear witness to the Catholic understanding of marriage and the importance of marriage as the building block for strong families and parishes. Look for upcoming information in future bulletins.

From the Parish Library in the Grand Hall

How can we transmit a living, personal Catholic faith to future generations? By coming to know Jesus Christ, and following him as his disciples. These are times of immense challenge and immense opportunity for the Catholic Church. Consider these statistics for the United States. Only 30 percent of Americans who were raised Catholic are still practicing. Fully 10 percent of all adults in America are ex-Catholics. The number of marriages celebrated in the Church decreased dramatically, by nearly 60 percent, between 1972 and 2010. Only 60 percent of Catholics believe in a personal God. If the Church is to reverse these trends, the evangelizers must first be evangelized-in other words, Catholics-in-the-pew must make a conscious choice to know and follow Jesus before they can draw others to him. This work of discipleship lies at the heart of Forming Intentional Disciples, a book designed to help Church leaders, parish staff and all Catholics transform parish life from within. Drawing upon her fifteen years of experience with the Catherine of Siena Institute, Sherry Weddell leads readers through steps that will help Catholics enter more deeply into a relationship with God and the river of apostolic creativity, charisms, and vocation that flow from that relationship for the sake of the Church and the world. Learn about the five thresholds of postmodern conversion, how to open a conversation about faith and belief, how to ask thought-provoking questions and establish an atmosphere of trust, when to tell the Great Story of Jesus, how to help someone respond to God's call to intentional discipleship, and much more.

From the Lighthouse CD Rack in the Narthex

It is through the Sacrament of Confirmation that a Catholic is fully initiated into the Church. Why then do so many newly confirmed Catholics never come back? In this talk, Fr. Mike Schmitz addresses this concerning trend in the Catholic Church with honesty, energy, and humor. Focusing on the true nature of Confirmation, Fr. Mike challenges ALL Catholics to see this sacrament not as a "graduation" from the Church, but as a commissioning by the Holy Spirit to go out into the world and proclaim the Gospel.

Fr. Mike does a wonderful job of explaining Confirmation, something often misunderstood, in a way that pinpoints the call of every Catholic and will inspire those who hear it to put their faith into action. Jason-Beaver, PA.

Catholic IQ Answers

1. (a) The first reading at Sunday Mass is taken from the Old Testament except for the Easter Season, when it is taken from the Acts of the Apostles.
2. (c) We trace the sign of the cross over our forehead, lips, and chest while silently praying that the Word of God be in our minds, on our lips, and in our hearts.
3. (d) Matthew 16:13 tells us that Jesus asked this question in the region of Caesarea Philippi, located about 20 miles north of the Sea of Galilee.
4. (b) The Sermon on the Plain (Luke 6:17, 20-49) is a much shorter version of the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5-7).
5. (d) John Carroll was appointed bishop of Baltimore, Maryland, in 1789.
6. (a) The Ursulines, named after St. Ursula and dedicated to the teaching of Christian living, were founded by Angela Merici in 1535.
7. (c) The four marks of the Church are one, holy, catholic, and apostolic. To be ecumenical is to seek unity among Christians.
8. (c) Magisterium comes from the Latin magister meaning one who has authority, especially to teach.
9. (d) Justice, prudence, temperance, and fortitude are called cardinal virtues from the Latin word for hinge meaning that good moral living hinges on these four virtues.
10. (a) The basic forms of prayer are petition, blessing, intercession, thanksgiving, and praise (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, n. 2644). (From Catechist Magazine)

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! — Divine Power

The raising of the widow's son helps us understand the person of Christ, who is true God and true man (two natures united in one person). This miracle shows that Christ has power over nature, while pointing towards Christ's resurrection and the general resurrection. Through His passion, death has been transformed by Christ. We can also rise from spiritual death through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, especially during this Year of Mercy. Have you experienced rising from spiritual death into life? archstl.org/dynamic

Have you signed up to pray for vocations?

The sign-up sheet is in the narthex. When it is your turn, Fr. Tom will give you the icon, a candle, and a load of information to ponder. When you return it the next week, another family will take it home and continue praying.

LET'S KEEP IT GOING!

The International Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima

Perhaps you and your family would like to have the Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima visit your home soon... maybe during a time of celebration or perhaps during a time of need!

For those who are interested in having Our Lady visit your home, please sign up in the Narthex with your name, address and phone number. We will let you know when you can bring the statue home to your house. We ask that you please say the Rosary every day while Our Lady is visiting in your home. There are some CDs and prayers that will be with the statue. Please watch, listen and pray with Our Lady in your home as a family. A family that prays together stays together. After having Our Lady in your home for one week, please return the statue to church so another family can have it in their home.

If you have any questions, please call Nancy Hollenstein at 636-798-2105.
