MEDITATION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

[A sinful woman fell at the feet of Jesus and began washing them with her tears.] Jesus said to the woman, "Your sins are forgiven." LUKE 7:45

In All Quiet on the Western Front, a young German soldier lies in a crater, taking cover from artillery fire. Suddenly a French soldier leaps into the same crater, taking cover also. The German youth bayonets and kills him. This is the first man he has killed, and he wonders what his name is. Seeing a wallet in the dead man's pocket, he takes it out. In it is a photograph of a young mother holding a child. The German gets a lump in his throat. The dead man is not an enemy but a father and husband like himself- someone who loves and is loved. This new vision of his one-time "enemy" makes forgiveness and love possible. What might I do to change my vision of someone I ought to forgive, as Jesus has forgiven that same person? To forgive is to set a prisoner free and to discover that the prisoner is ME.

AUTHOR UNKNOWN Mark Link S. J Vision 2000

Life is like juggling.

Dear parishioners,

That is one of the images that comes to mind when I think of the busy-ness of life. All of us juggle various balls of different sizes and weights. Trying to keep all of them in play is difficult, and sadly there are times that balls get dropped accidentally or even intentionally. To keep at it is the key, and pray that when you have to choose to “drop a ball” that it is an insignificant one and that such a decision will free you to attend to the remaining balls in play. So without further delay – here are some of the balls in play this summer.

- ☉ Congrats to Irene Caldwell on her reception of the Heart of the Parish Award! We are so blessed by Irene and her generous heart! We all have demands on our time and energy, and Irene has given so freely of hers.
- ☉ Outreach Committee – Last month it was “selfies”, this month it’s “fill in the blank”. What I am after and why? The Outreach Committee consists of members who were trained as Missionary Disciples over the last year by the Archdiocese. Our Outreach Committee hopes to further the evangelistic work of our parish. Our first goal is to really discern who is among us on a regular basis and then begin to find ways to connect with those who marginal or inactive. It will be a slow and probably messy process, but the goal is to lead others to a more active practice of their faith. Few things are better than sharing in the life of our community.
- ☉ Earlier this year I mentioned three groups I would like to start in the parish. Right now they have been among the balls in play that have gotten very little attention. If you are interested in meeting with me this summer I would like to discuss some ideas about them.

Just a refresher:

Health Committee – Golden Hearts – Belonging Thanks to those who have expressed an interest. I hope we can meet this summer to begin planning for an Autumn kickoff of these potential groups.

Finally, thanks to all who have made Many Gifts ~ One Heart so successful. We only have a little more than $60,000 left to pay on the debt. That is amazing! Thanks to all who have participated. When the debt is paid off, we will have some kind of celebration. The Campaign will continue with additional funds going towards our maintenance fund as well as planning for replacing Founders Hall in the not-so-distant future. My hope is that those of us who are still paying their pledge will continue to do so even after the debt is paid.

Peace,

Fr. Tom

Muhammed Ali on the Last Things

With the recent passing of boxing icon Muhammed Ali, many stories are being told about a man who not only fought well in the ring, but also “fought the fight” of the spiritual life well. Here’s one showing how Ali took his faith (and judgment) seriously. Years ago in an interview with Muhammed Ali he was asked, “What does your faith mean to you?” Ali replied, “It means a ticket to heaven. One day we’re all going to die, and God’s going to judge us, our good and bad deeds...I’m thinking about the judgment day and how you treat people wherever you go. Help somebody through charity, because when you do, it’s been recorded. I go to parties, see good looking girls. I take a box of matches with me. I see a girl I want to flirt with, which is a sin, so I light my matches, [he touches his finger] oooh, hell hurts worse than this. Buy a box of matches and carry them with you. Put one on your finger and see how long you can hold it. Just imagine that’s going to be hell. Hell’s hot, and for eternity.”

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! — Forgiveness of Sins

Does someone in your life need forgiveness? Last week, we heard about the raising of the widow’s son, which is a manifestation of Christ’s divinity. Today, we hear Christ forgive the sins of a sinful woman who showed great love to Him. This led those at the table to ask, “Who is this who even forgives sins?” The Nicene Creed gives us the answer: “God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God.” Christ gave this power to forgive sin to the Apostles, and, through them, to our bishops and priests. archstl.org/dynamic

How can we transmit a living, personal Catholic faith to future generations? By coming to know Jesus Christ, and following him as his disciples. These are times of immense challenge and immense opportunity for the Catholic Church. Consider these statistics for the United States. Only 30 percent of Americans who were raised Catholic are still practicing. Fully 10 percent of all adults in America are ex-Catholics. The number of marriages celebrated in the Church decreased dramatically, by nearly 60 percent, between 1972 and 2010. Only 60 percent of Catholics believe in a personal God. If the Church is to reverse these trends, the evangelizers must first be evangelized-in other words, Catholics-in-the-pew must make a conscious choice to know and follow Jesus before they can draw others to him. This work of discipleship lies at the heart of Forming Intentional Disciples, a book designed to help Church leaders, parish staff and all Catholics transform parish life from within. Drawing upon her fifteen years of experience with the Catherine of Siena Institute, Sherry Weddell leads readers through steps that will help Catholics enter more deeply into a relationship with God and the river of apostolic creativity, charisms, and vocation that flow from that relationship for the sake of the Church and the world. Learn about the five thresholds of postmodern conversion, how to open a conversation about faith and belief, how to ask thought-provoking questions and establish an atmosphere of trust, when to tell the Great Story of Jesus, how to help someone respond to God's call to intentional discipleship, and much more.

Eucharistic Miracles: The story of 36 major Eucharistic Miracles from Lanciano, Italy in 800 to Stich, Bavaria in 1970. Details the official investigations. Tells where some are still venerated today. Covers Hosts that have bled, turned to flesh, levitated, etc.; plus, of Saints who have lived on the Eucharist alone.

Reinforces the Church's doctrine of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament like no other book! Imprimatur. About the Author: Joan Carroll Cruz (1931-present) was born in New Orleans and educated by the School Sisters of Notre Dame. She has written extensively on Catholic topics, especially the saints and miracles. She is also a lay Carmelite and is the mother of five children.
