MEDITATION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

[Jesus said,] "Whoever wants to save his own life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it."
LUKE 9:24

Vance Havner writes: "God uses broken things. It takes broken soil to produce a crop, broken clouds to give rain, broken grain to give bread, broken bread to give strength. It is a broken alabaster jar that gives forth perfume. It is Peter weeping bitterly, who returns to greater power." True spiritual strength lies not in holding on to things but in letting go of them. Only by "letting go and letting God" can we open ourselves to a greater power than our own. The paradox of Christianity is, indeed, we are strongest when we are weakest. How might the words "letting go and letting God" apply to my life at this very moment?

Lord, give me the courage to let go and give you total control of my life.

The Marian Council would like to thank all the dedicated workers who gave so much of their time to size, sort, organize and sell all those lovely treasures at the rummage sale. We would also like to thank the those SUPER SHOPPERS who are always looking for that special trinket, ornament, clothing item—or nearly anything else! Without the support of everyone we would not have had such a successful sale.

Catholic IQ Answers

- 1. b) See John 11:25-26. Early Christians were known for their Easter faith in life after death. Many courageously faced terrible deaths because they were convinced that Jesus would raise them from the dead.
- 2. True. However, the Pharisees, like Jesus, believed in the after-life.
- 3. a) "...when the faithful receive the Body of the Son, they proclaim to one another the Good News that the first fruits of life have been given, as when the angel said to Mary Magdalene, 'Christ is risen!' Now too are life and resurrection conferred on whoever receives Christ" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, n. 1391).
- 4. d) See Luke 24:30-31. Christ vanished once the disciples recognized him in the breaking of the bread. Many understand this story as Christ's message that, once we recognize him in the Eucharist, his physical body is not necessary to know he is with us.
- 5. b) See John 20:29. Jesus knew that most Christians would not see him in the flesh but in the Eucharist, in the poor, and through the Church—the Body of Christ.
- 6. False. The Easter Vigil must begin "after nightfall...or end before the dawn of Sunday" (General Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar, n. 21). The Easter candle is first lit during the Vigil in expectation of Christ's Resurrection during the night.
- 7. c) White is the liturgical symbol of celebration, purity, and rejoicing. According to Revelation 7:14, the ones who will be worshipping Christ in heaven are those who "have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."
- 8. d) Catholics fast for 40 days during Lent, but we celebrate for 50 days throughout the Easter Season—from Easter Sunday to Pentecost.
- 9. a) See 1 Corinthians 15:57. "The victory that Christ won over sin has given us greater blessings than those which sin had taken from us..." (CCC, n. 420).
- 10. c) "The miracles of Christ and the saints, prophecies, the Church's growth and holiness, and her fruitfulness and stability 'are the most certain signs of divine Revelation...' which show that the assent of faith is 'by no means a blind impulse of the mind'" (CCC, n. 156).

Catholic, Alive! — The Jesus Question

"Who do you say that I am?" We must give an answer to this question, an answer that determines how we live our lives. If we truly believe that Christ is Lord, we take up our crosses daily and follow Him. This means we are to conform ourselves to Him until He is formed in us (CCC, 562). We can take simple steps today to grow in the Four Signs of prayer, study, generosity, and evangelization. As we read in the Catechism, "The disciple of Christ must not only keep the faith and live on it, but also profess it, confidently bear witness to it, and spread it" (1816). archstl.org/dynamic
