MEDITATION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

[Jesus and his disciples got caught in a violent storm at sea. When all seemed lost, Jesus stood up and commanded the wind, "Be quiet!" and he said to the waves, "Be still!" The wind died down, and there was a great calm. [The disciples said] to one another, "Who is this man? Even the wind and the waves obey him!" MARK 4:39, 41]

The novel Legion by William Blatty contains a moving scene. A Jewish detective is alone in a church, checking out the murder of a priest. Overwhelmed by the inhumanity of it all, he sits down and shakes his head. Then, slowly, he lifts his eyes to a crucifix hanging on the wall. As he gazes at the face of Jesus, his eyes soften and he says out loud, "Who are you? God's Son? No, you know I don't believe that. I just asked to be polite. . . . Who are you?"

Why do I believe Jesus is God's Son?

The strange thing about Jesus is that you can never get away from him. Anonymous

Summer Time Prayer

Dear parishioners,

As you go about your summer activities please know that I am praying for you and I hope you make deliberate time to thank God for all the blessings that surround us.

Peace,

Fr. Tom

*Heavenly Father, Creator of all times and places, we thank you for the gift of summertime,
the days of light, warmth and leisure.*

*Thank you for the beauty that surrounds us everywhere we look:
the multi-colored flowers,
the deep blue of the sky,
the tranquil surface of lakes,
the laughter of children at play,
people strolling in park, families gathered around picnic tables and the increased time to spend with family and friends.*

*As we open our eyes and ears to the landscape of nature and people, open our hearts to receive all as gift.
Help us to see with the eyes of Your Son and awaken our senses through the outpouring of Your Holy Spirit.*

*Give us that insight to see you as the Divine Artist.
Help us to realize and appreciate that you are laboring to keep all in existence.*

Awaken our souls with the awareness of your presence, shake us out of our slumber and safeguard us from mindless busyness.

Let all the gifts we enjoy this summer deepen our awareness of Your creative, life giving love so that we may share this with others and enjoy a summertime of re-creation.

Amen

PSR Corner: In this Archdiocesan "Year of Prayer" here are some ways that parents can help teach their children to pray.

2. The Bible. Set a goal to read at least the four gospels over the summer. A good translation is the RSV-CE or the NAB. Keeping other varieties of Catholic books around the house will invite your child to learn more about her faith. Read them together, or just allow your child to explore the books on her own.

Great articles for Fathers (and mothers too) can be found at James Stenson's website www.parentleadership.com

To come right to the point here, I have written my books on parent leadership, the fruit of my 30 years' experience with families, so that you, (especially if you are a young parent), won't have to express this same regret in the future. I've written them so that you can form a clearer idea of how other parents have lived as great leaders in family life and have succeeded with their sacred mission: to raise their children right. I want to help you form a "job description," so to speak, on how to succeed as a leader to your children. Countless people, I'm pleased to say, have gratefully told me how my experienced advice led them to be more confident and effective in family life. Prompted by this support from so many people, I've set up this Website as an informational service and a source of encouragement to parents--men and women who want to become more confident family leaders, more effective in carrying out their great responsibility as fathers and mothers. I'm pleased to say that tens of thousands of people access this Website each year, and they download nearly 150,000 folios on various family topics. (James Stenson)

Summer Lovin' - the Annual Humanae Vitae Mass and Celebration

Rice in the Cathedral, followed by dinner catered by The Pasta House and a family-friendly magic show in Boland Hall. $12 for adults, $6 for kids (3-11) or $50 maximum family charge. ANSWERS TO CATHOLIC IQ

1. (a) The Old Testament is full of references to sackcloth and ashes for penance.
2. (b) Historically Lent was a retreat-like period of time dedicated to the preparation of catechumens. Gradually it came to include the sponsoring community and those doing public penance.
3. (d) The washing of feet on Holy Thursday reminds us of Jesus' washing of the Apostles' feet at the Last Supper. See John 13:1-17.
4. (c) This period of three days, also known as the "Great Three Days" starts with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, continues through Good Friday and Holy Saturday, culminates in the Easter Vigil, and ends with Evening Prayer on Easter Sunday. Remember that in the Jewish tradition, days are measured from sunset to sunset rather than from midnight to midnight.
5. (d) See John 13:26. This action at Passover was traditionally a sign of the special regard of the host for a guest. We see Jesus reaching out to his betrayer even to the end.
6. (c) See John 13:23. In John's Gospel John himself is always referred to as "the disciple Jesus loved."
7. (d) See Matthew 26:14-16 and 47-50 for details. Judas later tried to give the money back, but the chief priests refused to put it in the Temple treasury because it was "blood money" (See Matthew 27:3-8).
8. (b) See John 18:10. Only Luke mentions that Jesus heals the ear again (22:51).
9. (a) After Peter's third denial a rooster crowed, as Jesus had predicted. (Matthew 26:69-75).
10. (d) All of the above, in spite of the popularity of showing only the Latin INRI on crucifixes. See John 19:20.

A big

thank you

Our ultimate goal is to be a saint. It is our greatest calling and what is desired for us by our Creator. Father Robert Barron paints a beautiful and mysterious image of what it takes to be a follower of, "the One who is, Jesus Christ." He lays out three intriguing paths to holiness: Finding the Center; Knowing You're A Sinner; and Realizing Your Life is Not About You. He also provides practical approaches to enhance the journey along these three paths.

Untold Blessing and its companion book, The Strangest Way, are insightful guides for meditation as you walk in the Way, either for personal reflection or for small group study and discussion.

"I watched Untold Blessing in my Adult Faith Formation class. At the risk of repeating what you've probably heard many times, I was really moved by your analysis of the Bible. By incorporating quotations and stories from past theologians as well as pop culture figures, I found it extremely easy to relate to. I am in the middle of my life and feel a strong desire to do the will of God wherever it might lead me. Thank you for helping me put my journey in better perspective."

From the Parish Library: Stoltz Grand Hall

This is a fully packed compendium of Faith questions answered with a Catholic understanding. For those who do not wish to read, this is better than an audiobook. The 50 questions taken up are grouped into sections about God, Trinity, Jesus, Spiritual life, and Prayer.

Each question is presaged by a Title card so that the audience will not be confused about the handling of the topics. Even as demarcated, the flow of the questions is logical in that one answered question leads to the next related question. The answers are pithy, brief and insightful. No kindergarten stuff but truly adult faith. Fr. Barron is an engaging speaker who uses facial expressions and hand gestures to effectively stress his points. Effective also is the use of slides, artworks and other illustrations. The delivery is low key, never shrill and does not try to bamboozle the audience. Instead Fr Barron just tries (successfully, I feel) to engage the audience into making his personal decision regarding the truthfulness or reasonableness of what he hears.

Fatherhood, by Joe Bestgen, Catholic Men for Christ Conference

In June we celebrate one of the best and yet most thankless jobs ever created--the role of father, dad, or daddy. The only job out there that even comes close to being viewed in the same way is the role of mother, mom, or mommy.

Like mothers, fathers do not totally devote themselves--their entire being--to the protection and success of their family for the accolades, but rather because of the deep-seated love that they have for their family in their hearts, a love that can be traced back to the Trinitarian love expressed by the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. When done well, it is a complete and total self-giving for the sole benefit of the family. The rich by-product of a family that is loved well is the production of works that helps move the Kingdom of God one step closer towards perfection. Fathers--celebrate your successes, reaffirm your commitment to your "fatherhood," and enjoy your day this month. And always remember that, when things get tough, you can ask for help and guidance from St. Joseph (the patron saint of fathers) and our heavenly Father.
