MEDITATION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

[A woman with a 12-year-long ailment came up behind Jesus and said] to herself, "If I just touch his clothes, I will get well." She touched his cloak, and... was healed.

MARK 5:28-29

Sandra Hook, a Canadian teacher, was doing volunteer summer work for Mother Teresa in the slums of India. One day she was asked to bathe a woman covered with sores. She shuddered at the thought. Then she recalled what Mother Teresa had said: "When you touch the poor, touch them as though you are touching the loving Jesus." At that moment Sandra saw the woman through the eyes of faith and had no difficulty bathing her. It was this kind of childlike faith, also, that healed the woman in today's gospel. What is a childlike faith? How is it acquired and deepened? What keeps me from being more childlike in my faith?

Faith is the eye that sees Him, the hand that clings to Him, the receiving power that appropriates Him.

NUN 101

Dear parishioners,

Last weekend we were blessed to have sisters from the Little Sisters of the Poor come to talk about consecrated life and then of course to ask for donations. Sr. Paul Mary gave us some great information on what it takes to give your life to the Lord as a sister, and described what it was like to live in a community of similarly-minded women. Part of being a Little Sister is requesting donations, essentially begging, and so there are envelopes available in the narthex for anyone who may have missed the opportunity to help them. Also, if you missed her talk, you can find it on the parish website at <http://ihm-newmelle.org/Resources/Homilies.aspx>

Sr. Paul Mary sent a thank you note which I would like to share with you.

June 14, 2015

Dear Father Miller,

Thank you for your gracious hospitality and for all you did to help us this past weekend.

We are very grateful.

In addition to returning the envelopes that were included with ours, I want to give you the "first" total from your parish. We brought home $4,637.00 which certainly is a great amount for your parishioners to give us.

As soon as we have a final figure, I will write a more formal letter to thank everyone for their charity and collaboration.

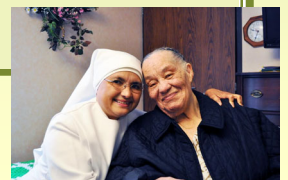

I will be looking forward to being at Immaculate Heart of Mary (but not too soon). I realize the requests the parishes have and am very thankful that you permitted us to come.

Above all, I ask our Lord to bring you closer and closer to His Heart— and that you remain joyful and self-giving in your priestly life.

In Jesus and Mary,
All the Little Sisters of the Poor
Sr. Paul Mary, LSP

St. Jeanne Jugan, foundress of the Little Sisters of the Poor, pray for us.

DID YOU KNOW...

"Sisters" are women religious who also have taken traditional religious vows but are engaged in active ministries among the public? They usually live in a convent.

HAVE YOU SIGNED UP TO PRAY FOR VOCATIONS?

The sign-up sheet is in the narthex. When it is your turn, Fr. Tom will give you the icon, a candle, and a load of information to ponder. When you return it the next week, another family will take it home and continue praying. Let's keep it going!

PSR Corner:

In this Archdiocesan "Year of Prayer" here are some ways that parents can help teach their children to pray. Create a family prayer. Let your child compose the words to a daily prayer you can say together. This will help him or her to see that prayers can be in traditional forms (The Lord's Prayer) or in one's own words.

Excerpts of Interest from Pope Francis' Encyclical "Laudato Si"

Laudato si' (Italian for "Praise Be to You") is the second encyclical of Pope Francis. The encyclical has the subtitle On the Care for our Common Home. Some selected "good quotes" that should be reflected on from the document are below.

6. Pope Benedict asked us to recognize that the natural environment has been gravely damaged by our irresponsible behavior. The social environment has also suffered damage. Both are ultimately due to the same evil: the notion that there are no indisputable truths to guide our lives, and hence human freedom is limitless. We have forgotten that "man is not only a freedom which he creates for himself. Man does not create himself. He is spirit and will, but also nature". With paternal concern, Benedict urged us to realize that creation is harmed "where we ourselves have the final word, where everything is simply our property and we use it for ourselves alone. The misuse of creation begins when we no longer recognize any higher instance than ourselves, when we see nothing else but ourselves.

9. He asks us to replace consumption with sacrifice, greed with generosity, wastefulness with a spirit of sharing, an asceticism which "entails learning to give, and not simply to give up. It is a way of loving, of moving gradually away from what I want to what God's world needs. It is liberation from fear, greed and compulsion". As Christians, we are also called "to accept the world as a sacrament of communion, as a way of sharing with God and our neighbors on a global scale. It is our humble conviction that the divine and the human meet in the slightest detail in the seamless garment of God's creation, in the last speck of dust of our planet".

11. If we approach nature and the environment without this openness to awe and wonder, if we no longer speak the language of fraternity and beauty in our relationship with the world, our attitude will be that of masters, consumers, ruthless exploiters, unable to set limits on their immediate needs. By contrast, if we feel intimately united with all that exists, then sobriety and care will well up spontaneously. The poverty and austerity of Saint Francis were no mere veneer of asceticism, but something much more radical: a refusal to turn reality into an object simply to be used and controlled.

ATTENTION PARISHIONERS!

We need more dedicated Eucharistic Ministers. If you are interested in being trained as a Eucharistic Minister, please call Irene at 636-398-4311 or Sarah in the office at 636-398-5270 to sign up. Training date and time to be announced later.

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – Full, Conscious, & Active Participation

The Second Vatican Council's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy sought to promote full, conscious, and active participation in the sacred liturgy. What is full, conscious, and active participation? It doesn't necessarily mean being a reader, usher, or extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, although these things are good. Full, Conscious, and active participation means plugging into the beauty and truth of the liturgy through increased holiness and solemn prayer. archstl.org/dynamic

HELP NEEDED: Mary Queen of Angels, a pro-life organization in O'Fallon that provides diapers, wipes, toiletries, formula, baby equipment, clothing, etc., is in desperate need of financial assistance. We rely solely on private monetary donations and do not accept government grants. Checks must be made out to "Mary Queen of Angels" and mailed to 827 West Terra Ln., O'Fallon, MO 63366. We can be reached at 636-379-5070. Thank you in advance for helping support "Life" in our community.

PLEASE HELP THE EMMAUS HOME— We have welcomed the Emmaus Bell Choir as part of our Epiphany Concert for several years. Now there is a plan in place to close the Marthasville Emmaus Home by 2020. The families of residents of that campus and many others in the community strongly believe there are better alternatives than closing the campus. However, they need time to bring their ideas to fruition and are seeking the public's support. Petitions are available at tables in the Narthex if you wish to support the families in asking the Board of Directors to rescind their decision to close. ### LADIES EVENING OF RECOLLECTION on Wednesday, July 1, at St Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish. A priest of Opus Dei will give two reflections on some aspect of the spiritual life, available for confessions and end with Benediction.

The activity begins at 7:15.

314-517-1277

ANSWERS TO CATHOLIC IQ

1. (c) See John 19:26-27, where Jesus entrusts Mary to John.
2. (b) Not named in the Bible, the repentant thief was traditionally called by this name and is the patron of those in prison.
3. (b) Ever since Joseph Cardinal Bernardin applied the analogy to the pro-life position, it has been used as a symbol.
4. (a) See Matthew 27:57-60. Joseph of Arimathea was a member of the Sanhedrin or ruling council.
5. (a) Although fasting is recommended as a practice of penance, there are only two obligatory fast days on the calendar: Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are required to fast on those days.
6. (b) Since 1966 when Pope Paul VI restructured public penance, Catholics have been required to abstain from meat only on Ash Wednesday and the Fridays of Lent. It is still recommended as a practice for all Fridays of Lent, however.
7. (c) Water and medicine may be taken without breaking the fast.
8. (b) The Church has never ruled that people eat fish on days of abstinence; the sign is used on religious calendars simply because most people choose to eat fish on days of abstinence.
9. (c) Red is used to symbolize our Lord's Passion, which is read at that day's Gospel.
10. (d) Mardi Gras is called Fat Tuesday because traditionally it has been the last day to enjoy rich food and pastries before Lent. Also, this Tuesday was sometimes referred to as Pancake Day because in the early days, the laws of fast excluded eggs, butter, and milk from the diet of Catholics during Lent. In order not to waste these foods, housewives would use them to make pancakes. Still another name for this day was Shrove Tuesday because it was a custom to prepare for Lent on this day by confessing one's sins. The word "shrove"—a word no longer in common use—had to do with confessing and receiving absolution for one's sins.

From the Parish Library: Stoltz Grand Hall

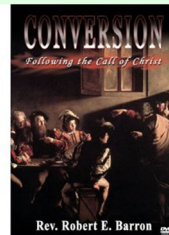

Our ultimate goal is to be a saint. It is our greatest calling and what is desired for us by our Creator. Father Robert Barron paints a beautiful and mysterious image of what it takes to be a follower of, "the One who is, Jesus Christ." He lays out three intriguing paths to holiness: Finding the Center; Knowing You're A Sinner; and Realizing Your Life is Not About You. He also provides practical approaches to enhance the journey along these three paths.

Untold Blessing and its companion book, The Strangest Way, are insightful guides for meditation as you walk in the Way, either for personal reflection or for small group study and discussion.

"I watched Untold Blessing in my Adult Faith Formation class. At the risk of repeating what you've probably heard many times, I was really moved by your analysis of the Bible. By incorporating quotations and stories from past theologians as well as pop culture figures, I found it extremely easy to relate to. I am in the middle of my life and feel a strong desire to do the will of God wherever it might lead me. Thank you for helping me put my journey in better perspective."

From the Parish Library: Stoltz Grand Hall

This DVD, Conversion - Following the call of Christ is especially good.

It begins powerfully with a talk on Bartimaeus' meeting with Jesus and his subsequent healing and finishes majestically looking at the path to illumination that is characteristic of the Journey of the Magi. The three other New Testament figures and Jonah from the Old Testament who are discussed are equally relevant models for understanding spiritual development. These six talks are probably the best I have heard. Father

Barron brings excellent examples to the discussion from Art to Sport from personal experience to the lives of saints and crafts his argument with refreshing clarity and confidence. You feel that like Jesus he could outsmart Pilate and encourage the boldness of Peter. In short Father Barron teaches with authority and this DVD is very special indeed.

Sign-ups will be on the church website and certain weekends in the narthex, or you can always call Sarah in the office to schedule your appointment.
