MEDITATION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

[Jesus told a story about a father who said to his son,]

"Go and work in the vineyard today.' 'I don't want to,' he answered, but later he changed his mind and went."

Matthew 21:28-29

A man turned to drink. He also turned from God and his family. One day while walking along, repenting how his life turned out, he saw a bent, rusty nail in the gutter. It reminded him of himself and his life. So he picked it up and took it home. Placing the nail on an anvil, he began to straighten it out and clean it up. An hour later, it looked almost new again. Then it occurred to him. He could straighten out and clean up his own life in the same way. That thought triggered his conversion. He turned away from drink and back to God and to his family. Today, he keeps that nail, straightened and cleaned, in his wallet. Was there a time when I was almost like that bent, rusty nail? What changed me?

Sausage Dinner News

IHM NEEDS YOU!

As of this moment, we still have 106 open spots on the worker sign-up sheets!

Be a good steward and work for the parish at the dinner.

Openings include-

- ⇒ Working in the dining halls, seating guests, serving food, refilling drinks;
- ⇒ Selling sausage;
- ⇒ Taking dinner tickets;
- ⇒ Making mashed potatoes, carrying food, scraping bowls, bagging bread, assisting in the kitchen;
- ⇒ Cleaning jobs, such as: monitoring the bathrooms, taking out the trash, washing and drying dishes, cleaning up the kitchen and halls at the end of the day;
- ⇒ Keeping the outdoors area free of trash and working the Express Dining Area;
- ⇒ Assisting with the outdoor activities (parking lot, children's games, gizzards and livers)

Every family in the parish is asked to bring homemade bread and desserts. Cake is ok but our guests usually crave pie so- the more, the better! If you can bring 3 pies or cakes and 2 loaves of bread, we'll be able to fill all the orders.

What an outstanding opportunity for stewardship!

Time- spend a few hours working at the dinner

Talent- use your God-given gifts as an ambassador, greeter and host at the dinner

Treasure- donate bread and dessert; help fill up the country store; purchase raffle tickets and crafts

The Fall Sausage Dinner will be a massive success but only if we all pull together to make it so.

See you there!

NEWS FROM THE
DEPARTMENT

This past Sunday prayers were offered for parents and catechists at the 9:30 am Mass. This has been promoted by the U.S. Bishops as Catechetical Sunday in the United States. It is a way to both acknowledge and pray for parents and teachers as they work together to "light and guard, rule and guide" those children entrusted to their care, especially in the ways of faith.

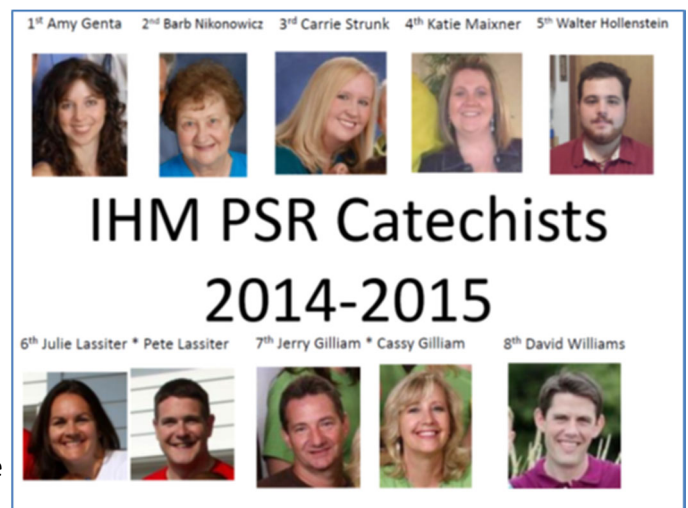

Catechetical Sunday

The Gospel of Matthew records our Lord's both beautiful and startling words regarding how we "light and guard, rule and guide" children entrusted to our care. "Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me; but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened round his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea. (Mat. 18:5-6). Jesus, gentle meek and mild is also a fierce shepherd concerned for his sheep, especially those most vulnerable. As we carry out this awe-some responsibility as parents, teachers, guardians and guides, especially as we strive to witness in word and deed the face of Jesus, it is fitting that we had a public recognition and prayer for our parents and catechists. Here are a couple of the prayers that Father pronounced over parents and catechists this weekend.

For Parents: God our Father, let your peace settle within the hearts of these mothers, fathers, and guardians. Give them strength and wisdom as they care for their children. Show them how to raise their families with patience and tenderness. Give them strength during the times of greatest difficulty and help them recognize the little joys that are part of each day. May they grow in wisdom, understanding, and grace. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, who is one with you and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. R/. Amen.

For catechists: With your fatherly blessing, Lord, strengthen these servants of yours in their resolve to dedicate themselves as catechists. Grant that they will strive to share with others what they themselves derive from pondering your Word and studying the Church's teaching. And let them gladly join those they teach in honoring and serving your name. We ask this through Christ our Lord. R/. Amen.

Let's keep each other in prayer. And if you'd be so kind, offer the above prayer of intercession for the catechists here at IHM: 1st grade: Amy Genta 2nd grade: Barb Nikonowicz 3rd grade: Carrie Strunk 4th Grade: Kate Maixner 5th Grade: Walter Hollenstein III (Jennifer Bossert aide) 6th grade: Pete and Julie Lassiter 7th grade: Jerry and Cassy Gilliam 8th grade: David Williams (Special mention of all those who help with the Liturgy of the Word for Children as well).

CONGRATULATIONS TO SHAWN MUELLER, Director of Religious Education for Immaculate Heart of Mary! Shawn was recently given the Rigali Service Award at a ceremony at the Cardinal Rigali Center. He was recognized for his many productive years as a catechist here at IHM, both in PSR and adult education. Thank you, Shawn, for sharing your gifts with us!

ANSWERS TO "WHAT'S YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?"

1. (c) Zechariah (or Zachary) was the father of John the Baptist. After John's birth Zechariah praised God in a song of praise called the "Canticle of Zechariah," or the "Benedictus" (Luke 1:68-79) which is prayed each day by the Church as part of Morning Prayer.
2. (a) The Dead Sea Scrolls represent a portion of the library of the Essenes, a group that lived a highly structured life in the desert from the second century BC to the second century AD
3. (c) The English word comes from the Hebrew word pesah, and refers to death passing over the homes of the Israelites when the rest of Egypt was struck down (Exodus 12:13).
4. (b) After Jesus' challenge, John's Gospel (8:3-9) reports that everyone walked away.
5. (a) From 1981 visionaries reported seeing the Virgin Mary at Medjugorje. In 2010 a Vatican directed commission finished its investigation of the alleged apparitions. Their report is currently "on the desk" of Pope Francis. See <http://www.medjugorjetoday.tv/> to keep up to date.
6. (d) "Vulgate" is from the Latin word for "of the people." St. Jerome (341-420) is responsible for the first Latin translation of the Bible.
7. (b) "Atheism" comes from the Greek words for god (theos) and the prefix a ("without").
8. (d) Pope John Paul II has purposefully chosen cardinals from all over the world to form the most international distribution of the College of Cardinals in the history of the Church.
9. (a) Jesus used the word Abba when he called out to his Father in an intimate and familiar way during the great crises in his life, as during his agony in the garden (Mark 14:36).
10. (d) One of the most important solemnities on the Church calendar, the Annunciation celebrates the angel Gabriel's visit to Mary and her answer: "May it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38).

St. Paul Library / Lighthouse CD Resources

(Note: With close to 3000 items, the Parish Library is located in the Grand Hall past the restrooms. It is open during the week-normal business hours- and works on an honor system. Items from the Lighthouse CD rack are located and available in the Narthex.

From the Parish Library: Grand Hall

December 1531, Mexico. The Virgin Mary appears to Juan Diego, a humble Indian peasant, but at first, no one believes him. On her request the Indian peasant wraps some Castilian roses in his tilma, which had mysteriously bloomed on the barren rock at his feet. He is given an audience with his Bishop to tell his amazing story, and when he meets the Bishop he opens his cloak to a miraculous scene: the image of the Virgin is impressed upon it. The image is extraordinarily real. Centuries later, the results of scientific analysis are amazing. In the Virgin's eyes the 13 figures who witnessed the miracle are visible. The stars on her cloak are positioned exactly as they were on the day of miracle (December 12, 1531). The painting technique used is unknown. The colors are vibrant and intact; the cloth itself, uncorrupted by time. And that's not all: an extraordinary discovery reveals the Spanish origin (from Extremadura, Spain) of the name of Guadalupe and its incredible connection with the Evangelist Saint Lucas.

From the Lighthouse Catholic CD – Pamphlet Rack: Narthex

A young Catholic who spent his short life caring for the sick and infirm. A handsome and active young man from an influential family in Turin who dedicated his short life to the care of the poor and the sick and working for social and political reforms. Pier Giorgio Frassati's generosity was legendary. He often gave the clothes he was wearing to poor people he met who were in need. An open anti-fascist, a keen sportsman and mountaineer, an enthusiast of the theatre and literature, and a young man with a great devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, he stands as a great example of Christianity in action. His life was cut short by polio at the age of 24 and thousands of the Italian industrial city's poor lined the streets at his funeral. He was beatified in 1990 by Blessed Pope John Paul II.

PRO-LIFE BANNER

For two weeks, from Sept. 30 – Oct. 12, Immaculate Heart of Mary will be hosting the traveling pro-life banner. The banner travels to parishes throughout the St. Charles Deanery. The purpose of the banner is to provide a visual reminder to parishioners of the evil of abortion and to encourage parishioners to offer special prayers to end this evil throughout the world. The banner will be on display in St. Joseph's Chapel during the week and in the main church on weekends. It is especially fitting that we will have the banner at our parish this year during Respect Life Sunday.

STARKENBURG: For all Catholic young adults (18-35) The Shrine of Our Lady of Sorrows in Starkenburg and to Hermann for Oktoberfest on Saturday, October 4th. There will be Mass celebrated at 11:30 a.m. at the shrine, and then food, fun, and fellowship to follow in Hermann. catholicjcya@gmail.com

DEACONS: SERVING YOU...SINCE A.D. 33!

Did you know that the first Christian martyr, St. Stephen, ordained at the hands of the Apostles as one of the first seven deacons, lived and died proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ? In the last four decades, hundreds of men have proclaimed the same Gospel with their own lives, lives of loving service that have in turn changed countless other lives for the better. Called by Christ to minister to the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, our Deacons are preaching God's Word to us, praying fervently for us, and caring compassionately for us each and every day. And each year, many men discern that same call and begin the process of formation that, God willing, leads to ordination as Deacons. You can help support these men as they discern God's will in their lives. Deacon formation in the Archdiocese relies heavily on the support of this year's collection on October 4. May God abundantly bless you for your generosity, Deacon Tony, Deacon Chris, Candidate Tim.

IHM MUSIC DEPARTMENT; SINGERS -

If you are interested in participating in the music ministry of our church for Advent and Christmas, plan to attend rehearsals from the very beginning of the pastoral music season.

With few exceptions, rehearsals will take place every Thursday at 7:00 pm in the church and we sing every Sunday from September through June at the 9:30 am Mass.

Thanks for all you do for IHM.
